London, Sept. 5.—Winston Churchill told his parliament today that the British-American exchange of destroyers and defense bases will enable the United States "to take danger by the throat whilst it is still hundreds of miles away"—but he warned the British to remember that America is not in the war.
The prime minister, speaking for a time during a general London air raid, said, however, that Hitler "no doubt will pay the U. S. out if he ever gets the chance."
Nevertheless, he expressed his boundless confidence that the empire of the Third Reich "will pass away as swiftly—perhaps more swiftly—than did Napoleon's army, although, of course, without any of its glitter and glory."
Churchill told Commons that no one must read into the British-American agreement anything more than is on its face, and he stressed that it did not affect "in the slightest degree the non-belligerency of the United States."
Turning to the battle of England, even while it raged above the capital itself, the prime minister declared the Germans had used a greater proportion of their air strength already than the British; warned of heavier fighting to come, and predicted: "The whole nation will stand up to it, grim and gay."
While he was speaking the deep beat of the London sirens sounded the "all clear."

PARLIAMENT IS INTERRUPTED BY ENEMY BOMBERS

By The Associated Press
London, Sept. 5.—(P)—The House of Commons, called by advance notice to hear the Prime Minister Winston Churchill's second war report, was forced to suspend its session for about 45 minutes today when a wave of German warplanes made a lightning thrust toward the capital.
The city remained under the alarm for an hour and 26 minutes, the all clear coming at 4:31 P. M. (10:31 A. M., EST.), but Commons had resumed its session more than half an hour before the alarm was raised.
It was London's second air raid of the day.
The galleries were cleared when the sirens sounded at 3:05 P. M. (9:05 A. M., EST.) and the house itself suspended business about 10 minutes later when the speaker said a raid was "more imminent."
Just before 4 P. M., however, the hour scheduled for Churchill's address, the chamber reassembled. The speaker said "the house must understand that the raid warning is still on and we are still on the alert."
Churchill rose shortly afterward to make his address.
Soon after the raid alarm sounded, watchers from rooftops in the (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Postmaster General Is Pennsylvania Man

Washington, Sept. 5.—(P)—Frank C. Walker of New York City and Scranton, Pa., 54-year-old lawyer and theater owner, was nominated by President Roosevelt today to be postmaster general to succeed James A. Farley, resigned.
Walker, a native of Plymouth, who got his start in adult life in Montana, is an old friend of the president's and is a former head of the National Emergency Council, an administrative office now absorbed in the office of government reports.
He also served as treasurer of the Democratic national committee in the early days of the first Roosevelt term.

SAILORS RELATE GRIM STORY OF TRAGEDY AT SEA

Baltimore, Sept. 5.—(P)—Thirty-seven haggard and disheveled British seamen, eight of them injured, told a grim tale today of disaster and death in the war at sea.
Landed here unexpectedly last night by the Swedish freighter Elknaren, they were the sole survivors of crews of two British vessels, the 4,000-ton freighter Blairmore and the Royal Navy sloop Penzance, both torpedoed and sunk Aug. 24 about 700 miles off the Irish coast. More than 100 of their shipmates were lost.
Their stories, pieced together through a wall of censorship clamped down by British consular officials, indicated the eight injured men were the only survivors of the Penzance.
These, burned, cut and dazed, were among the Penzance sailors taken aboard the Blairmore when it sped to the flaming warship's aid—only to be torpedoed in turn a few minutes later by the same U-boat. With 20 Blairmore survivors, they were rescued again by the Elknaren.
Despite their double-torpedoing and painful injuries, the Penzance survivors put up a cheery front. One, his face a mass of powder burns, told a hospital attendant: "We were torpedoed once, and they had just fished us out when another torpedo got the rescue ship and down we went again."
The 37 survivors were 17 hours at sea in lifeboats before the rescue ship sighted them.
Capt. Eric Kallstrom of the Elknaren bade a personal farewell to each seaman, and officer, including Capt. Hugh Campbell of the Penzance. (Turn to Page Thirteen)

DEMOCRATS MEETING TO DISCUSS FINANCES

Harrisburg, Sept. 4.—(P)—The task of raising funds for the fall campaign is the number one problem facing Pennsylvania's county Democratic chairmen, assembling for a dinner-meeting here tonight.
Every conceivable system will be studied, said Resident Secretary Walter Miller.
The opening date for the vote-drive set tentatively for next Tuesday but subject to arrangements in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, also will occupy the chairmen.
Unofficial reports named the destroyers as the Aaron Ward, Hale and Upshur, 214 feet long. The vessels of about 1,100 tons each are capable of a speed of 35 knots and regularly carry four-inch guns and 21-inch torpedo tubes.

FIST FIGHT ENLIVEN STORMY NIGHT SESSION

Washington, Sept. 5.—(P)—With the spectacle of a hard-hitting fist-fight on the floor to testify to the shortness of some tempers, the House began its final drive today for a decision on the Burke-Wadsworth compulsory military training bill.
Two days of general debate over the chamber settled down to consider the measure section by section and to act on the scores of pending amendments. The vote on conscription was expected to occur tonight or Saturday.
Sponsors of the bill, rechecking their strength, made sharp downward revisions in earlier predictions that it would pass by 150 votes. Although still insisting it would not be defeated, they said they now expected the bill's margin would be from 50 to 75 votes.
The tense feelings engendered by the conscription debate burst out into the open last night when the epithet "traitor" was spoken and the House belched Rep. Vincent (D-I) and Rep. Sweeney (D-D) throwing punches at each other in the well of the chamber while the galleries looked on.
The fight followed a speech by Sweeney, in which he assailed conscription and accused President Roosevelt of seeking to enmesh the United States in war.
In the course of the speech, Sweeney, who is 35, mentioned that the slogan during Woodrow Wilson's campaign was: "He kept us out of war."

LEADERS FROM 22 STATES CALL UPON WILLKIE

By THEODORE F. KOOP
Rushville, Ind., Sept. 5.—(P)—Exactly two months before the presidential election, Wendell L. Willkie called on Republican leaders from 22 states today to "get an aggressive, organized campaign under full steam."
He invited nearly 100 national committee men, committee women and state chairmen to discuss organization problems with him over heaping plates of fried chicken, cream gravy and mashed potatoes—his favorite menu.
The meeting was described in advance by the Republican presidential nominee as the largest of its kind planned for this year. It was designed primarily to cover states outside the solid south which he will not visit in his forthcoming western tour.
"This campaign is not an ordinary one," said Willkie in a brief talk prepared for the luncheon. "It is a crusade for national unity, rehabilitation of the domestic economy and building of national defense."
He explained to reporters, however, that the gathering was not intended basically to consider party policy but to "get the party organization into high gear."
National Chairman Joseph W. Martin sent word at the last minute that congressional duties would keep him in Washington.
Mr. John Hamilton, the national committee's executive director, was among those coming here for the meeting.
Willkie asked as many of the group as possible to talk with him individually.

DESTROYERS LEAVE BOSTON

Boston, Sept. 5.—(P)—The first three of 50 United States destroyers swapped to Great Britain in exchange for naval and air bases were on the high seas today, apparently headed to a Canadian port.
Nine other of the over-age vessels were undergoing minor repairs and paint job here. Unofficially, it was reported that four of them might sail today and that others might arrive here in the meantime.
Manned by American skeleton crews of about 60 men each, who will be replaced by British tars, the first three vessels backed from their navy yard berths at three-minute intervals and then sailed single file into the Atlantic at dusk yesterday.
Officials at the yard, maintaining their policy of silence regarding the aged, but grim, craft, declined to identify them or disclose their destination.
Unofficial reports named the destroyers as the Aaron Ward, Hale and Upshur, 214 feet long. The vessels of about 1,100 tons each are capable of a speed of 35 knots and regularly carry four-inch guns and 21-inch torpedo tubes.

Eighteen German Civilians Reported Killed When Shell Drops On Workers Quarters While Victims Are Outside Shelter

By The Associated Press
Berlin, Sept. 5.—British bombs killed 18 civilians in a northern German town and two men in a two-hour raid on Berlin last night as German planes, taking advantage of the first excellent weather in weeks, sped to Britain today with Biggin Hill and Kenley, London suburbs, as objectives.
While the command said the British attack on the capital "foundered" in face of strong defenses, it said Nazi planes "effectively" bombed airports and air-plant plants in England and set numerous fires in attacks on port and dock facilities at English east and west coast points, including Liverpool, Bristol and Hull.
An account of sea warfare said the German navy has sunk six British destroyers in recent days, including three said to have been of modern type—the Esk, Ivanhoe and Exmouth.
Britain has announced the loss of 30 destroyers in the course of the war.
A German submarine was said to have sunk several armed British merchant ships totalling 27,000 tons "from a strongly protected convoy."
A German speedboat flotilla last night sank 28,000 tons of merchant shipping and a destroyer of the Imogen class protecting a convoy, the High Command announced. (Turn to Page Thirteen)

WOMAN IS HELD AS PARTICIPANT IN FATAL HOLDUP

Ebensburg, Sept. 5.—(P)—Mrs. Catherine Selva, 22-year-old blonde from Houtzdale, was held for the Cambria county grand jury last night on a charge of participating in the Nanty-Glo holdup Saturday in which her brother-in-law, Frank Selva, of Houtzdale, was shot to death.
Justice of the Peace Charles P. Rowland said the woman pleaded guilty to charges of robbery and attempt to rob 18-year-old Andrew Meszaros, whom she and Selva had engaged to drive them from Nanty-Glo to Twin Rocks.
A coroner's jury exonerated Meszaros in the shooting, Selva saying he was opening "himself and the property in his car" Meszaros, whose ambition is to become an agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, claimed he shot Selva during a struggle when the pair ordered him at gunpoint to drive to an abandoned road.
State Motor Patrolman Carl Erickson said Lewis Dudas, 50, of Cora, Indiana county, had identified a picture of Selva as the man who kidnapped him and forced him to drive from Homer City to Dover on the morning of July 31 after Police Chief A. I. Campbell, of Homer City, had been beaten and robbed of his pistol. At the time, Campbell said he believed the man who attacked him had also kidnapped Dudas.

"Uncrowned Queen," Reported Banished, One of Most Powerful Leaders in Balkans

By The Associated Press
Mme. Magda Lupescu, for whom King Carol, as crown prince, once denounced the throne of Rumania, often has been called the "uncrowned queen" of that nation.
Although all the most powerful political and military leaders of Rumania have been arrayed against her for years, the red-haired daughter of a Jewish money-lender has retained her influence over the king through his political ups and downs.
She has been considered the leader of a court group which has controlled public undertaking and directed appointments and promotions in the army and government.
Wealthy and charming, she reportedly owns considerable inter-ests in Bucharest banks and newspapers and a foreign motor company.
In 1925 her influence was credited with having caused the resignation of General Ion Antonescu as chief of the general staff. Today, Antonescu assumed the premiership on condition, it was reported in diplomatic dispatches, that she be banished.
Now in her 40's, she has been an international figure nearly 20 years. In 1921, Carol, then crown prince, married Princess Helen of Greece, who divorced him in 1925 because he had deserted her for Mme. Lupescu.
Agitation against the king's companion has increased ever since he returned in 1929 to take the throne.

International Situation

By The Associated Press
Prime Minister Winston Churchill predicted in Commons today that Adolf Hitler would attempt to retaliate against the United States for the transfer of 50 over-age United States destroyers to Great Britain.
"There is no doubt Hitler will not like this transference of destroyers," Churchill said.
"No doubt he will pay the U. S. out if he ever gets a chance."
The British premier, whose war review speech was delayed 45 minutes as Nazi Luftwaffe raiders dived high over the London area for the second time today, declared there was "not the slightest violation of international law" in the U. S.-British swap of destroyers for naval and air bases.
Churchill disclosed that British deaths from air raids in August totaled 1,075.
In southeast Europe, the Balkan situation plunged toward new complications.
Unconfirmed reports said 3,500 Rumanian soldiers had volunteered to form a "death legion" to resist Hungarian occupation of northern Transylvania "to show the world that Rumania has courage."
The legionnaires reportedly pledged themselves to man the concrete forts of the Carol defense line near Oradea, which is not scheduled to be turned over to Hungarian troops until tomorrow under the terms of an Axis-dictated settlement.

SECOND RAID OF DAY DELAYS WAR REVIEW OF PRIME MINISTER

Parliament is Advised That Exchange of Destroyers And Defense Bases Enables This Country to "Take Danger by the Throat Whilst it is Still Hundreds of Miles Away;" Prediction is Made That Hitler Will No Doubt Retaliate if He Ever Gets Chance; Non-Belligerency Not Violated By Transfers

CREWS ALREADY MEETING SHIPS AT VARIOUS PORTS WHERE THEY ARE BEING DELIVERED

London, Sept. 5.—Winston Churchill told his parliament today that the British-American exchange of destroyers and defense bases will enable the United States "to take danger by the throat whilst it is still hundreds of miles away"—but he warned the British to remember that America is not in the war.

The prime minister, speaking for a time during a general London air raid alarm, said, however, that Hitler "no doubt will pay the U. S. out if he ever gets the chance."

Nevertheless, he expressed his boundless confidence that the empire of the Third Reich "will pass away as swiftly—perhaps more swiftly—than did Napoleon's army, although, of course, without any of its glitter and glory."

Churchill told Commons that no one must read into the British-American agreement anything more than is on its face, and he stressed that it did not affect "in the slightest degree the non-belligerency of the United States."

Turning to the battle of England, even while it raged above the capital itself, the prime minister declared the Germans had used a greater proportion of their air strength already than the British; warned of heavier fighting to come, and predicted: "The whole nation will stand up to it, grim and gay."

While he was speaking the deep bleat of the London sirens sounded the "all clear."

The prime minister's war statement was delayed 45 minutes by the second German air raid of the day on the metropolitan area, and while the House waited, in adjournment, a defiant raider traced a cross of white smoke across the blue sky above the city.

But without waiting for the "all clear," Commons reassembled and Churchill began to speak.

Churchill declared a British-American agreement had been completed to the "general satisfaction of the British and American peoples" as the House cheered him loudly.

There will be no delay in bringing the destroyers into active service, and British crews are already meeting them at various ports where they are being delivered "by the long arm of coincidence," Churchill declared amid loud laughter.

Dispatch of the destroyers to Britain will allow the United States to "take danger by the throat whilst it is still hundreds of miles away," he said.

He said Germany's need "to obtain a decision is very great" and warned the House that Germany should be able to "magnify and multiply" her attacks during this month.

He spoke of August as a "real fighting month."

"The Germans have made a very substantial and important effort to gain the mastery and they have certainly put forth a larger proportion of their total air strength than we have found it necessary up to the present to employ against them. Their attempts to dominate the Royal Air Force and our AA (anti-aircraft) defenses by daily attacks have proved very costly to them," he said.

Even if the air attacks are doubled or trebled the prime minister said he believed the nation "can stand it" and "emerge from it stronger in the air than we were before."

Of the Balkans, Churchill said he had always thought that southern parts of Dobruja, which Rumania had taken, were of great importance.

Churchill rose shortly afterward to make his address.

Soon after the raid alarm sounded, watchers from rooftops in the (Turn to Page Thirteen)

LIQUOR CONTROL BOARD CHANGES ARE ANNOUNCED

Harrisburg, Sept. 5.—(P)—Chairman William S. Rial today announced creation of two new bureaus in the Liquor Control Board reorganization program and the appointment of bureau heads to replace one dismissed official.

Administration of President Cardenas Takes Extraordinary Precautions to Forestall Open Revolt by Followers of Almazan

ELECTION IS DISPUTED

Mexico City, Sept. 5.—(P)—The administration of President Cardenas took extraordinary precautions today to forestall a possible armed attempt to seize power which a leader of General Juan Almazan's party declared might begin "within the next 10 hours or two days."

The government patrolled highways, watched airports and kept all trains under surveillance. To check on movements of Almazan's followers, while responsible sources reported troop reinforcements were being moved to northern

MORE WITHDRAWALS FROM DUQUESNE STAFF

Pittsburgh, Sept. 5.—(P)—Withdrawal of three more professors from the Duquesne University staff was made public today, bringing to nine the number of faculty members who have left school since the Very Rev. Raymond V. Kink became president last winter.

The three were Dr. O. H. Van Duzer, associate professor of history; the Rev. Sigmar Von Eversen, professor of history; and the Rev. Francis B. Thornton, professor of English.

Dr. Duzer said he had resigned because of the dismissal of Father Sigmar and Father Thornton, whom he described as "distinguished clerical scholars."

State Motor Patrolman Carl Erickson said Lewis Dudas, 30, of Coral, Indiana county, had identified a picture of Selva as the man who kidnapped him and forced him to drive from Homer City to Spangler on the morning of July 11, after Police Chief A. I. Campbell, of Homer City, had been beaten and robbed of his pistol.

At the time, Campbell said he believed the man who attacked him had also kidnapped Dudas.

TWO FUGITIVES SHOT TO DEATH

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 5.—(P)—Bullets today cancelled two more convicts' names from the "wanted" list of Arkansas' wholesale Labor Day prison break.

State patrol headquarters here announced guards from the Cummins prison farm shot to death two of the fugitives in a gun fight in rural southeastern Arkansas, and reported recapture of another felon.

This left at large only 11 of the 36 men who broke from the Cummins farm Monday after killing a guard. Four have been shot to death, 21 recaptured.

The Columbia, La., section breathed easier after the release, unharmed, of three high school students kidnapped by six convicts all of whom are dead or retaken.

A report earlier today told of five or six convicts being surrounded near Watson, and it was believed the two reported killed may have been part of this group. Still another was reported spotted near Natchez, Miss.

INVADERS REPULSED

By the Associated Press

Berlin, Sept. 5.—British bombs killed 18 civilians in a northern German town and two men in a two-hour raid on Berlin last night as German planes, taking advantage of the first excellent weather in weeks, sped to Britain today with Biggin Hill and Kenley, London suburbs, as objectives.

While the command said the British attack on the capital "founded" in face of strong defenses, it said Nazi planes "effectively" bombed airports and airplane plants in England and set numerous fires in attacks on port and dock facilities at English east and west coast points, including Liverpool, Bristol and Hull.

An account of sea warfare said the German navy has sunk six British destroyers in recent days, including three said to have been of modern type—the Esk, Ivanhoe and Exmouth.

(Britain has announced the loss of 30 destroyers in the course of the war.)

A German submarine was said to have sunk several armed British merchant ships totalling 27,000 tons "from a strongly protected convoy."

A German speedboat flotilla last night sank 39,000 tons of merchant shipping and a destroyer of the Imogen class protecting a convoy, the High Command announced.

CORRY FIRM IS GIVEN CONTRACT AT NAT. FORGE

The Rogers Structural Steel Company, of Corry, has been given the contract for the addition being erected at the Irvine plant of the National Forge & Ordnance Company, it was learned here today. The addition, 91 by 400 feet, is being erected on the west end of the present factory building.

The Corry firm, it was stated, has the contract for all work above the foundations. The foundations are now being laid and steel work will begin early next month, with the contract calling for completion by December 1.

It was reported that the new addition and equipment for the same will represent an outlay of approximately a quarter of a million dollars.

The National Forge & Ordnance Company recently received a half million dollar contract for gun forgings for the United States government and a smaller order since the large one was closed.

At the Irvine plant this morning it was stated that while the plant is being enlarged, there are no immediate openings for additional workmen.

Irvine Boy Scouts Given Advancements At Court of Honor

A court of honor was held last night for Boy Scout Troop 22 of Irvine, directed by Calvin Hall, Clinton Johnson, Harry Johnson, Carl Johnson, Sr., and William Mulvey.

William Abplanalp, Homer Black, Virgil Munson and Willard Smith were promoted to second class rating and the following were awarded merit badges:

Rowing: Robert Wilson, Richard Johnson, Clair Christie and William Mulvey; canoeing: Richard Johnson and Clair Christie.

Clair Christie and Richard Johnson were promoted to the rank of Star Scouts and William Mulvey was presented with his Boy Scout Life Guard rating.

After the court, colored movies were shown, depicting activities of Troop 22 at Camp Olmsted, and another showing Scout life in general and pointing out the usefulness of Scouting.

Start Construction Of New Metal Fence At Athletic Field

Workmen yesterday began the construction of a new fence at Russell Field, authorized by the school board last month.

The fence, which will be of sheet-metal construction will enclose Russell Field on the south side and from Lexington avenue to the embankment on the west and east sides. It is believed that the balance will be built next year.

Posts to support the metal barrier are now being set.

CORA MAHAN COWLES
Mrs. Cora Mahan Cowles, of Lander, who was nearly 84 years of age and had spent her entire lifetime in this section, passed away at 1:12 o'clock this morning at the home of her only son, James A. Cowles, at Lander. She had been ill but a few days.

Had she lived until September 30, she would have been 84 years old and had made a wide circle of friends and acquaintances in those years. Her cheerful disposition and helping hand in time of need will be missed with sadness in a great many places.

Besides her son, she leaves three daughters, Mrs. Stephen Hitchcock, of Lander; Mrs. John M. Lyon and Mrs. Freeman O. Peterson, also of Warren. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Her husband, Dr. H. H. Cowles, preceded her in death April 13, 1923.

Removal has been made to the home of Mrs. Hitchcock, where friends may call and from where funeral services will be held at two o'clock, EST, on Sunday afternoon. Interment will be made in the Foster cemetery at Lander. (Jamestown and Erie papers please copy)

MRS. GEORGE SEALY
Funeral services in memory of Mrs. Minnie Sealy, wife of George Sealy, were held from the family home on the Cobham Park Road at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. J. H. Clemens, pastor of Grace Methodist church, officiated and the following acted as bearers for interment in the Spring Creek cemetery: Christ Mack, Charles Kelley, N. C. Larsen, Sam Hanson, William Lutz and W. E. Allison.

Those who came from away to attend the rites included Will Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Morton, of North East; Mr. and Mrs. John Dingman, of Titusville; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Black, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Whaley, Youngsville; Mrs. Tena Boyett, Kane; Louis De Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Roy De Jean, Spring Creek; Mrs. Emil Anderson and daughter, Mervin, and Lyle Smith, of Bradford; Mrs. Jennie Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hovey, Jamestown, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter De Jean, Corry.

MRS. AUGUSTA MUDGE
Services were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock from West Spring Creek church in memory of Mrs. Augusta Mudge, of Corry, R. D. 2, who passed away Saturday evening at 8:15 o'clock at her home. The funeral services were preceded by a prayer service at the late home at 1:30 o'clock. Burial was made in West Spring Creek cemetery.

Mrs. Mudge had been in ill health for nearly a year and for the past several weeks had been critically ill. Born November 6, 1859, at Sugar Lake, the deceased spent the greater portion of her life at West Spring Creek. She had resided at her present home for over fifty years and was a member of West Spring Creek church and Ladies Aid Society.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Clyde Morton and Mrs. Clara Morton, of Corry, R. D. 2; nine grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. William Rodgers and Mrs. Fred Terrell, both of Guys Mills.

ADIN E. NIVER
Funeral services for Adin E. Niver were held at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Lutz Funeral Home, conducted by Rev. E. F. Worth, rector of Trinity Memorial Episcopal church. The commitment was made in Oakland mausoleum, with the following as bearers: Emil Ristau, Clarendon; Sam Niver and Joseph Dietrich, Warren; Edson Skinner, Russell.

Attending from away were Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Williams, Kane; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Potter, Akeley; Mrs. C. W. Eakin and son, Thomas, Prospect, Pa.; Mrs. Joseph O'Leary, Royston; Mrs. John Hickey, Clarendon; Miss Beth Niver, granddaughter of the deceased, Erie.

WILLIAM PIERCE
Sheffield, Sept. 5—Mrs. Albertine Pierce, 5—Mrs. Albertine resident who died at the home of a cousin there, were held at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning to the Borden funeral home. The services, conducted by Rev. Ivan E. Russell, local Methodist pastor, were followed by burial in the Sheffield cemetery. Sam Ewings, of Hastings, Carl Ryberg, F. Borden and Ray Carlberg were the bearers.

MRS. ALBERTINA JOHNSON
Sheffield, Sept. 5—Mrs. Albertine Johnson, well known local resident of nearly half a century, who passed away at her home here Monday, was laid to rest in the local cemetery yesterday afternoon. Funeral rites in her memory, conducted at 2 p. m. in the late residence, Pratt street, by Rev. Carl E. Lundgren, pastor of the Bethany Lutheran church, preceded the committal.

TALLULAH BANKHEAD TO APPEAR AT SHEA'S JAMESTOWN, SEPTEMBER 19TH

"The Little Foxes", a stage play and recent success in New York, with Tallulah Bankhead starred, is coming to Shea's Theatre, Jamestown, N. Y., Thursday evening, Sept. 19, for one performance.

After playing a year at the National Theatre, New York, the taut Lillian Hellman drama launched its tour last winter in Washington, D. C., where Miss Bankhead's father, William Bankhead is Speaker of the House. This season the tour will take Miss Bankhead thru the mid-west, down the west coast and thru the south.

Tallulah Bankhead breathes vigorous, dynamic life into Miss Hellman's central character, Regina Giddens. It is the outstanding dramatic triumph of Miss Bankhead's career. As one critic declared: "Tallulah Bankhead adds one more magnificent portrait to the gallery of theatre immortals."

In support of Miss Bankhead is a cast that has won wide acclaim for its excellence. Among the players are Frank Conroy, Marie Carroll, Charles Dingle, Carl Benton Reid, Eugenia Ravin, Dan Duryea, Abbie Mitchell and John Marriott.

TO HONOR STEWARD
For their regular Saturday night party this week, members of the Eagles' Lodge will honor Ray Still, who has been the steward for the past 25 years. Supper will be provided by the ladies and each is asked to bring a luncheon. Afterward, there will be a series of games and dancing. It is expected that there will be guests from Jamestown, N. Y., Kane, Erie and other surrounding towns. Local Eagles and their ladies are especially urged to be in attendance.

Civil Service Examinations

The Civil Service Commission in making this announcement calls particular attention to the fact that part-time officers will be able to continue their regular practice in order that this may be done, appointments to the part-time positions will be made of medical officers in the vicinity of the place of duty.

The expansion of the army creates a need for about 600 civilian medical officers in various grades for temporary and part-time service. The duties of full-time officers will be to act as doctors in hospitals, in dispensaries, and in the field. The duty of part-time officers will be to report for sick call at a fixed hour each day and to be subject to emergency call at all times.

Applications may be obtained from the Secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners at any first or second-class post office or from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. Physicians are urged to apply at once. This work is of the greatest importance to the success of the National Defense program.

IMPROVEMENT IN BUSINESS NOTED IN WARREN BORO

Improvement in general business conditions in Warren during the month of July was indicated in the monthly business survey of the Pennsylvania State College, received here today.

Building permits for July numbered seven and totaled $27,613 the best July figure in recent years. The gain over last July was 204 percent. From June to July permits rose 311 percent. Permits for the first seven months of 1940 totaled $66,683, or 38 percent above those of last year in the corresponding period.

New automobile and truck sales in Warren county during the month were 145 a gain of five percent from those of June. Sales for the first seven months were 797 vehicles for the county.

Postal receipts for July were $46,409 the best total for that month in any recent year and a gain of 26 percent over those reported last year in that period. From June to July receipts showed a less than seasonal decline of six percent. Receipts for the first seven months of 1940 were $346,075 or eight percent above those of 1939 in the same months.

Telephones in service on August 1 totaled 5,025 a year-to-year increase of 151 stations. During July a seasonal fall of 53 telephones was noted.

Factory employment for July in the Kane-Oil City area of five counties in which Warren is located was the best for that month in three years and two percent above that of last July. From June to July employment showed a seasonal decline of 12 percent. Employment for the first seven months of 1940 averaged seven percent higher than that of 1939 in the same months.

Factory payrolls in the five-county area for July were the best for that period since 1937 and eight percent more than they were in the previous July. From June to July payrolls showed a seasonal decline of four percent. Payrolls for the first seven months of this year averaged 14 percent better than those of last year in the same interval.

SCHOOL DAYS BRING NEED FOR NUTRITIOUS LUNCHES

Off to school go hundreds of Warren County boys and girls to pursue their quest for knowledge. How well will they retain the health acquired during vacation from good food, sunshine, fresh air and exercise?

That depends to a great extent on the type of lunch these boys and girls will have. Especially if they must carry their lunches, remember Mrs. Thelma Priendergast, home economics extension representative Warren County.

Food experts say it is best to consider the child's lunch in relation to his food needs for the entire day. A warm nutritious breakfast and a substantial lunch are necessary to provide materials for growth and energy. The evening meal with at least one hot dish will fill in the food elements which may be lacking in the other meals.

The grade 'A' lunch box contains milk as a beverage or in soups, sandwiches of light and dark bread with fillings of egg meat or cheese, raw vegetables or fruits, a simple dessert or sweet.

Sometimes it is possible to have a hot dish at noon. This may be a soup, stew or vegetable chowder which can be carried in a thermos bottle or in a pint jar and reheated at school. Some schools furnish a hot dish at noon.

Children may not enjoy their lunch or eat enough food because their lunch boxes are not properly prepared, says Mrs. Priendergast. Regardless of the type of lunch box used if lined with a white paper napkin or towel it will be attractive and appealing to the child. Wrapping each article of food separately in waxed paper also makes the contents of the box more appealing.

Always keep a knife, fork and spoon and drinking cup in the lunch box and pack this equipment so that it does not shake about. Also pack food so that it stays intact through the walk to school. Use covered containers for moist foods or you may use paper cups with covers which may be discarded.

For additional suggestions and information on school lunches, consult Mrs. Priendergast at the Agricultural Extension office in Warren.

Private Royce Carbaugh of Fort Sloum, N. Y., home on the loach has just received a fourth class specialist rating in addition to his grade of first class pilot. The young man is visiting in his sister Mrs. Ruth Carbaugh at her home, 1111 C. B. Baxley, West Fifth Avenue.

SOCIAL SECURITY

A representative of the Erie office of the Social Security Board will be available to residents of Warren county in the State Employment office, Warren Land building, 225 Pennsylvania Avenue, west, next Monday from 9:30 a. m. until noon and beyond that time if necessary it was announced today by E. L. Keenan, manager of the Erie office.

SEEK JOB GUARANTEES

Guarantees that their jobs will be waiting when they end their military service are being sought of employers throughout Pennsylvania by the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and Chauffeurs Union officials at Harrisburg, say they hoped to reach agreements similar to those made in Pittsburgh whereby replacements for drivers called to the colors must agree to resign promptly when the original jobholders return.

GAS KILLS TWO

Two Erie men died of carbon monoxide gas fumes yesterday. Coroner W. G. Strohle said the death of William J. Croning, 70, was caused by a coffee pot boiling over putting out the flames of a small stove. Croning was the father of William Croning, manager of a hotel in Erie. The body of Romeo Smith, 61, a tailor, was found in the attic of his home with his head covered with blankets and a gas jet turned on. Dr. Strohle gave a verdict of suicide in the latter case.

1940 LICENSES NOW AVAILABLE TO CO. HUNTERS

County Treasurer Allen Gibbs is today receiving a supply of 1940 hunting licenses which have been printed on his office in the courthouse.

This year's application for a regular hunter's license include a questionnaire to be filled by the hunter with of Pennsylvania in the interests of national defense. Each applicant is asked to list the number of weapons, the caliber, number of gauge, make and number of shots.

This information is to be held in strict confidence and will not be used to interfere in any way with the lawful possession of firearms.

Although the response is purely voluntary it is believed that the majority of Pennsylvania sportsmen will cooperate to the fullest extent.

WARREN NATIONAL BANK TO HOLD ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW SATURDAY

As announced in several recent advertisements in the Times-Mirror and posters distributed throughout the county, the Warren National Bank will hold its 15th annual flower show on Saturday, September 7, from 2:00 to 10:00 o'clock.

Because of the fact that several hundred exhibits are brought for the show, and to provide for those who cannot take them to the bank early Saturday morning, employees of the bank will be on hand from 6:00 to 9:00 o'clock on Friday evening to receive entries.

The flowers will be placed in the cool basement of the bank up to the time when all entries must be delivered by 11:00 a. m. on Saturday. At that time the judging of entries will begin.

With extra help engaged for the day to augment the bank employees, the work of sorting and judging is done expeditiously so that all exhibits can be placed in readiness for opening the show at 2:00 p. m. Saturday.

All exhibitors are asked to bring their entries either Friday evening or as early as possible Saturday morning.

ANNUAL FALL FLOWER SHOW

All Warren county will have another opportunity to see the best products of amateur gardeners in the district next Saturday afternoon and evening when for the fifteenth year in succession the Warren National Bank will hold its annual fall flower show.

Back in the year 1926 some of the bank's officers conceived the idea of encouraging amateur gardening in the borough and county, and established the show with the slogan "Make Warren County Known for Beauty."

The first year brought forth more or less a hodgepodge collection of flowers from enthusiasts who agreed with the idea.

Beginning with the second year, a spirit of rivalry developed and the cash prize ribbons awarded by the bank encouraged many people to take up gardening as a hobby and a healthful form of recreation.

According to an official of the bank, the depression years seemed to provide the greatest interest, as the years 1930 and 1931 had the largest number of exhibits shown at any of the shows.

However, it is stated, there has been an average of over eight hundred entries for all the years, and the popular appeal of the show is evidenced by an average attendance of over seven thousand persons.

The flower shows of recent years have all been examples of the finest products of flowers, fruits, and vegetables, with literally hundreds of exhibits approaching the prize winning class.

With fifty-five different classifications of entries for this year, and first, second, third and some special awards, there is ample opportunity for amateur gardeners to join in a contest that is worthwhile for the participants and inspirational to the entire community.

The Times-Mirror extends congratulations to the Warren National Bank for its enterprise and to the enthusiastic gardeners for their cooperation in making this event so successful and delightful for everyone.

ALIEN REGISTRATION

Warren's postmaster issues an appeal to aliens of the county to comply with the registration law with as little delay as possible, and those concerned should need no reminder that it would be for their best interests to heed the request.

The registration legislation was enacted in conjunction with America's drive to expose all persons who believe in totalitarian or other forms of government opposed to the free, democratic rule of this nation. All aliens will be required to list clubs, organizations and societies with which they are affiliated, including any which further the aims of foreign powers.

The campaign is in no way aimed at becoming a national witch-hunt with unoffending aliens as the victims. Many of these men and women are just as opposed to dictator governments as are the citizens of this country; many of them are here to escape just such dictator governments.

The registration drive seeks only a method to single out and disclose those aliens who, enjoying all the rights and privileges offered by this nation, are yet sympathetic to foreign dictators and who seek the overthrow of constitutional government here.

We believe that all non-citizens in Warren county are loyal to this nation. They should be only too eager to join in any move designed for the protection of their adopted country.

Rain failed to interfere with the concert by the V. F. W. band at the Beaty building last evening, but darkness fell all too early for the satisfaction of musicians and several groups of youngsters who had dates with the Sand Man!

With autumn fogs settling over England, it remains to be seen how the Nazis do against the R. A. F. in its natural habitat.

The way some motorists drive in school areas one would think that they are not aware of the fact that the fall term has resumed!

Too many men find the biggest trouble with middle age is that it affects them mostly in the middle.

Pardon Us If We Make a Few Changes Too

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—If you see a couple of gents measuring the width of a state highway, taking grade elevations, punching soil-test rods into shoulders and measuring the sag in old bridges, you'll know that the highway is a part of the 80,000-mile network of strategic military roads.

You probably won't see any such gents, because most of the state highway departments already have the information. In the next few weeks they will be pouring it into the Public Roads administration here for tabulation and assembly into a report to the Army and the National Defense commission.

Out of that report, with recommendations from the President and action from Congress, our strategic military highway network may be improved and repaired. But don't let anybody tell you that at the moment there is any wholesale plan to make super-highways out of every wagon track—or even any national defense plans to "super" highways that aren't already "supered."

Must Support Tanks
ABOUT the only military roads that will be built immediately are those which lead from the main arteries or cities to new military and naval establishments. In mileage, these roads probably will be negligible. It is likely they will be built with an eye to modern mechanical warfare—wide and strong enough to accommodate the heavy tanks and new heavy gun carriages.

The 80,000-mile network was worked out by the Army and the Public Roads administration. It spiderwebs over every state, with east-west and north-south arteries tying together the coast lines and the borders and giving clear outlets from industrial centers to military cantonments and naval supply bases.

Bridge Boom Likely
MUCH of it, according to preliminary surveys, would be satisfactory for military use even now. The principal difficulties are gaps of poor road that link some of the better highways and about 2,000 bridges that are far from adequate for passage of new, heavier military equipment.

It looks to this unexpert eye as if the bridge building business is in for a boom. If there are 2,000 wobbly bridges that need reinforcing or replacement, that means a heap of new spans, even if some of them are no more than glorified culverts.

Not All At Once
WHAT effect the survey and subsequent recommendations will have on the country's highway system cannot be predicted
now. But you can skip the idea that we are going to have in the near future 80,000 miles of highways that will match the 1,900-mile four-lane, earth-divided autobahn of Germany.

We already have more auto-bahren here than that and we'll probably have still more, but it would take years to super-highway the whole network and make adequate feeders out of all the horse and buggy roads that lead into it.

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From the Warren Evening Times

In 1920 In 1930

After months and months of preparation, members of the general committee and others arranging for the Old Home Week celebration were satisfied this morning that plans were complete and so far as their work was concerned they could take a breathing spell awaiting the official opening tomorrow.

State game protectors and search warrants yesterday swooped down upon the home of about thirty foreigners in the vicinity of the tannery at Glade Run and the search of the homes was rewarded by the finding of three revolvers and one long knife. Three persons placed under arrest for possession of arms.

Superintendent Mitchell of the Warren Water Company has had a large cooling box placed in front of the Water Company's office and free ice water will be furnished to visitors during Old Home Week.

The Ivy Club will give a series of their pleasant dancing parties next Wednesday at the Oving Club.
Jordan's five-piece orchestra, featuring Hugh Robertson, banjo, will furnish the music.

Warren folks are receiving folding cards distributed by the Warren National Bank announcing the fifth annual flower show to be held next Saturday. Judges this year will be Mrs. A. L. Schellhammer, Mrs.
M. P. Cowden, Mrs. B. R. Walker,
O. C. Tritt and J. M. Hittington.
The latter of State College.

Work has been started in building the foundations for two new buildings, to be erected in the rear of the girls' home at the Ruth M.
Smith Children's Home in Sheffield.

Gifford Pinchot, Republican candidate for governor, has announced that he will speak in every county in the state in his coming tour starting next Monday. He will speak in Warren Friday, September 12th.

Members of the Deernorn Club are planning a meeting and dinner to be held at the Oving Club Friday evening.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—A story has been going around town about two mysterious Russians who appeared at a small neighborhood theater recently and discovered with dismay that the last showing of Greta Garbo in the Russian drama, "Nimotchka," was just over. They explained to the manager that they were starting back to Russia that very night and were very desirous of seeing the film—so desirous that they ended up by paying $85 to run the film off again right there on the spot, just for them.

We were around for several days thinking what improbable people those Russians were until, by one of those funny little twists of coincidence, we found ourselves in an almost identical situation.

About a week ago we attended the preview of a new picture. We went over to see the picture because it was "Foreign Correspondent" by Alfred Hitchcock, and we think Hitchcock is one of the best cinema directors in the world.

ONE of Hitchcock's fortes is suspense. How he strings it out is his business, strictly. It's a gift. It's the sort of stuff that ties us up into gnawing knots of curiosity. Well, half way through the film one of the central characters is dramatically unmasked as a spy. Just as this happened we noticed that the clock on the wall said four o'clock (have you got a song to go with that?), and as we had an appointment for that hour that couldn't be broken, we grabbed our bonnet and got out of there.

Had we realized the consequences of this action we would have said foxy about appointments. All the way across town, and all through the appointment, which was with an aviator just back from China and which should have been interesting, we kept thinking about that spy. Was he a spy, we wondered. Or was it simply Hitchcock up to his old tricks. Probably it was Hitchcock up to his old tricks. But the afternoon passed, and the evening came, and midnight waned, and we couldn't get the situation out of our mind. It was like Mark Twain's "Punch, Brothers, punch with care."

Breakfast didn't taste very good next morning. Neither did lunch.
About 2 o'clock we telephoned the United Artists to find out whether, by chance, another preview might be in the wind.

"Sure is," said Lynn Farol, "in half an hour." Ten minutes later, hateful and almost breathless, we arrived.

"What about that preview?" we wanted to know. Farol had gone out.

"It's been cancelled," the man said. "Won't be held until next week."

WELL, what would you have done? We started talking. We explained all, including our tasteless dinners and our sleepless nights. The man said, "Pardon me" and went out, and in a few minutes later he was back again.
"If it's the last two reels you want to see we'll run 'em for you," he explained.

We know this sounds silly, but seeing those two reels took all the fatigue and weariness out of our frame; it made everything all right—even the hero, who came out all right in the end. And when the last foot had been shown we got up and walked out of there a new man. That was when we started sympathizing with Russians.

If you see "Foreign Correspondent," see it through. Leaving at the half-way mark isn't worth it.

STAMP NEWS

WHITE HOUSE approval of the proposed series of U. S. defense stamps practically insures the issue, now tentatively scheduled for October or November release, following the completion of the Famous Americans series. It is possible that President Roosevelt may suggest designs for the new series.

Russia commemorates the 100th anniversary of the birth of Peter Ilich Tchaikovsky with an issue of five stamps. Three values bear the famous composer's portrait; his birthplace is pictured on two other stamps of the set.

Pitcairn Island's first stamps will be released Oct. 15. The series of eight designs and values will include stamps picturing Fletcher Christian, John Adams,
Lieutenant Bligh, views of the Bounty and of the island and a map of the island.

Reminders of the Canal Zone commemoratives, honoring the 10th anniversary of airmail service and the 25th anniversary of the opening of the Panama Canal, are to be destroyed on March 1, 1941.

American philatelists are sponsoring stamp auctions for refugee relief. Collectors can contribute stamps and all proceeds will be administered by three major refugee relief organizations.

ANNUAL FALL FLOWER SHOW

All Warren county will have another opportunity to see the best products of amateur gardeners in the district next Saturday afternoon and evening when for the fifteenth year in succession the Warren National Bank will hold its annual fall flower show.

Back in the year 1926 some of the bank's officers conceived the idea of encouraging amateur gardening in the borough and county, and established the show with the slogan "Make Warren County Known for Beauty."

The first year brought forth more or less a hodge-podge collection of flowers from enthusiasts who agreed with the idea.

Beginning with the second year, a spirit of rivalry developed and the cash prize ribbons awarded by the bank encouraged many people to take up gardening as a hobby and a healthful form of recreation.

According to an official of the bank, the depression years seemed to provide the greatest interest, as the years 1930 and 1931 had the largest number of exhibits shown at any of the shows.

However, it is stated, there has been an average of over eight hundred entries for all the years, and the popular appeal of the show is evidenced by an average attendance of over seven thousand persons.

The flower shows of recent years have all been examples of the finest products of flowers, fruits, and vegetables, with literally hundreds of exhibits approaching the prize winning class.

With fifty-five different classifications of entries for this year, and first, second, third and some special awards, there is ample opportunity for amateur gardeners to join in a contest that is worthwhile for the participants and inspirational to the entire community.

The Times-Mirror extends congratulations to the Warren National Bank for its enterprise and to the enthusiastic gardeners for their cooperation in making this event so successful and delightful for everyone.

ALIEN REGISTRATION

Warren's postmaster issues an appeal to aliens of the county to comply with the registration law with as little delay as possible, and those concerned should need no reminder that it would be for their best interests to heed the request.

The registration legislation was enacted in conjunction with America's drive to expose all persons who believe in totalitarian or other forms of government opposed to the free, democratic rule of this nation. All aliens will be required to list clubs, organizations and societies with which they are affiliated, including any which further the aims of foreign powers.

The campaign is in no way aimed at becoming a national witch-hunt with unoffending aliens as the victims. Many of these men and women are just as opposed to dictator governments as are the citizens of this country; many of them are here to escape just such dictator governments.

The registration drive seeks only a method to single out and disclose those aliens who, enjoying all the rights and privileges offered by this nation, are yet sympathetic to foreign dictators and who seek the overthrow of constitutional government here.

We believe that all non-citizens in Warren county are loyal to this nation. They should be only too eager to join in any move designed for the protection of their adopted country.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—A story has been going around town about two mysterious Russians who appeared at a small neighborhood theater recently and discovered with dismay that the last showing of Greta Garbo in the Russian drama, "Ninotchka," was just over. They explained to the manager that they were starting back to Russia that very night and were very desirous of seeing the film—so desirous that they ended up by paying $85 to run the film off again right there on the spot, just for them.

We went around for several days thinking what improbable people those Russians were until, by one of those funny little twists of coincidence, we found ourselves in an almost identical situation.

About a week ago we attended the preview of a new picture. We went over to see the picture because it was "Foreign Correspondent" by Alfred Hitchcock, and we think Hitchcock is one of the best cinema directors in the world.

ONE of Hitchcock's fortes is suspense. How he strings it out is his business, strictly. It's a gift. It's the sort of stuff that ties us up into gnawing knots of curiosity. Well, half way through the film one of the central characters is dramatically unmasked as a spy. Just as this happened we noticed that the clock on the wall said four o'clock (have you got a song to go with that?), and as we had an appointment for that hour that couldn't be broken, we grabbed our bonnet and got out of there.

Had we realized the consequences of this action we would have said foxy about appointments. All the way across town, and all through the appointment, which was with an aviator just back from China and which should have been interesting, we kept thinking about that spy. Was he a spy, we wondered. Or was it simply Hitchcock up to his old tricks. Probably it was Hitchcock up to his old tricks. But the afternoon passed, and the evening came, and midnight waned, and we couldn't get the situation out of our mind. It was like Mark Twain's "Punch, Brothers, punch with care..."

Breakfast didn't taste very good next morning. Neither did lunch. About 2 o'clock we telephoned the United Artists to find out whether, by chance, another preview might be in the wind.

"Sure is," said Lynn Farnol, "in half an hour." Ten minutes later, hatless and almost breathless, we arrived.

"What about that preview?" we wanted to know. Farnol had gone out.

"It's been cancelled," the man said. "Won't be held until next week."

WELL, what would you have done? We started talking. We explained all, including our tasteless dinners and our sleepless nights. The man said, "Pardon me" and went out, and in a few minutes later he was back again. "If it's the last two reels you want to see we'll run 'em for you," he explained.

We know this sounds silly, but seeing those two reels took all the fatigue and weariness out of our frame; it made everything all right—even the hero, who came out all right in the end. And when the last foot had been shown we got up and walked out of there a new man. That was when we started sympathizing with Russians.

If you see "Foreign Correspondent," see it through. Leaving at the half-way mark isn't worth it.

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From the Warren Evening Times

In 1920

After months and months of preparation, members of the general committee and others arranging for the Old Home Week celebration were satisfied this afternoon that plans were complete and so far as their work was concerned they could take a breathing spell awaiting the official opening tomorrow.

State game protectors armed with search warrants yesterday swooped down upon the homes of about thirty foreigners in the vicinity of the tannery at Glade Run and the search of the homes was rewarded by the finding of three revolvers and one long knife. Three persons pleaded guilty to owning the contraband arms.

Superintendent Mitchell of the Warren Water Company has had a large cooling box placed in front of the Water Company's office and free ice water will be furnished to visitors during Old Home Week.

The Ivy Club will give another of their pleasant dancing parties next Wednesday at the Outing Club. Jordan's five-piece orchestra, featuring Hugh Robertson, banjo, will furnish the music.

Old Stuff—Oil was discovered in the Stoneham district in 1878.

A raccoon always washes its food before eating it.

The Warren County Bar Association was represented at the annual meeting of Zone 7 held at Conneaut Lake last evening by the following: E. V. MacDonald, C. E. Bonnell, John Siggins, E. D. Blackman, L. C. Eddy, E. H. Beschlin, J. H. Alexander, Meyer Kornreich, W. S. Clark and A. G. Eldred.

Warren folks are receiving fold-ers distributed by the Warren National Bank announcing the fifth annual flower show to be held next Saturday. Judges this year will be Mrs. A. L. Schellhammer, Mrs. M. F. Cowden, Mrs. B. R. Walker, O. C. Tritt and J. M. Huffington, the latter of State College.

Work has been started in building the foundations for two new buildings to be erected in the rear of the girls' home at the Ruth M. Smith Children's Home in Sheffield.

Gifford Pinchot, Republican candidate for governor, has announced that he will speak in every county in the state in his coming tour starting next Monday. He will speak in Warren Friday, September 12th.

Members of the Deernhorn Club are planning a meeting and dinner to be held at the Outing Club Friday evening.

STAMP NEWS

WHITE HOUSE approval of the proposed series of U. S. defense stamps practically insures the issue, now tentatively scheduled for October or November release, following the completion of the Famous Americans series. It is possible that President Roosevelt may suggest designs for the new series.

Russia commemorates the 100th anniversary of the birth of Peter Ilich Tchaikovsky with an issue of five stamps. Three values bear the famous composer's portrait; his birthplace is pictured on two other stamps of the set.

Pitcairn Island's first stamps will be released Oct. 15. The series of eight designs and values will include stamps picturing Fletcher Christian, John Adams, Lieutenant Bligh, views of the Bounty and of the island and a map of the island.

Reminders of the Canal Zone commemoratives, honoring the 10th anniversary of armistice and the 25th anniversary of the opening of the Panama Canal, are to be destroyed on March 1, 1941.

American philatelists are sponsoring stamp auctions for refugee relief. Collectors contribute stamps and all proceeds will be administered by three major refugee aid organizations.

DEMOCRATS AT SHEFFIELD TO HOLD MEETING

Sheffield, Sept. 4.—A meeting of Sheffield township Democrats will be held at 8 o'clock Thursday evening in the party's clubrooms in the Hinkley-Anderson building, Center street. Matters of importance, including the huge inter-county rally that is to be held next Sunday at Wildcat Park, will be brought up for discussion and action. All members of the party are urged to attend Thursday's meeting.

ON STANDARD TIME
The Pennsylvania Bottle Company factory, which in common with all other Sheffield industry and business establishments has, since spring, been operating on daylight saving time, yesterday went back to standard time. So far as is known, the bottle concern is the only establishment that has done so. Sept. 28 is the officially chosen date for reverting to "slow" time, and it is thought the community in general will wait until that time to turn the clocks back.

GUN CLUB
The regular September meeting of the Rod and Gun Club will be held in American Legion Home at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening. All members, and particularly all members of the stock committee are urged to be on hand.

RETURN HOME
Mr. and Mrs. John Evan and family have returned home from Cuba Lake, N. Y., where this summer they operated a roller skating rink. Mr. Evan, proprietor of the Forest View roller rink here, said yesterday that he expects to have the local establishment open for business within a week or ten days. Steve Sabat, roller rink employee, accompanied the Evans home.

BAND AT PARKER
The Knox Glass Associates, Inc., band, the section's largest and most outstanding musical organization was in Parker's Landing Labor Day to assist in the dedication of a new community park there and to participate in a celebration staged in commemoration of the 25th anniversary of the founding of the Parker glass bottle factory, a unit of the Knox group.

Informatory bidding—the showing of all possible suits—is a necessary part of contract bridge, but sometimes it informs the opponents too well how to put up the killing defense.

Here is an interesting hand taken from the Northern California women's pair championship, which was won by Mrs. Alice Carroll and Mrs. Esther Layman of San Francisco.

The entire hand is based on the deductions to be made from the bidding. When North overcalled West's spade bid with two clubs, she was marked for at least four clubs. South's support of the club suit gave West reason to believe that South also held four clubs, or three with one or two high honors, which might mean that North held five clubs. West realized that she would be able to get in twice with her ace-queen of hearts.

The bidding further indicated that neither North nor South held more than four hearts, which would give East three trumps. If West could make use of her partner's third trump, she thought the contract would be defeated. West therefore opened the seven of clubs. Declarer won in dummy with the jack and led a heart, taking the finesse, only to have West win with the queen.

Another club came back, which declarer won with the ace and immediately played the king of hearts. West won with the ace and led the third club, which East was able to trump.

There is a lot of fun in this kind of bridge.

Flower Show Proves Big Attraction For Garden Club Group

Sheffield, Sept. 5.—Held Saturday afternoon and evening in the township building, the Garden Club's annual flower show was an outstanding success and, despite rainy weather, attracted a large number of visitors. 175 of whom took time to sign the visitors' register provided by the sponsor.

Although the show was somewhat smaller in number of entries than in 1939, the flowers were far superior in quality including conformation and color.

Appreciative of the help and cooperation received in staging the show, the Garden Club wishes to publicly thank the supervisors for granting the use of the township building, the Methodist church board for use of tables and benches, Mr. Dahl and Mr. Hjelm and Fred Carlson for transporting tables and benches, the firemen for their kindness and fairness in judging and anyone else who in any way helped to make the show the attractive success it was.

Prize winners announced are: Dahlia (one kind), D. R. Cole, 1st and 2nd; Dahlia (6, pom-pom), Mrs. Hattie Priset, 1st; Hattie Weaver, 2nd; Dahlia (12 mixed), Mrs. Priset, 1st; George Strassbaugh, 2nd; Gladioli (5, one color), Lawrence Newburg, 1st; Ruth Yutze, 2nd; Gladioli (12 mixed), Lawrence Newburg, 1st; Anna Byrne, 2nd; Marigolds (crown of gold), Mrs. Anna Mervine, 1st; Mrs. Priset, 2nd; Marigolds (dwarf), Ariel Houghton, 1st; Miss Lloyd Houston, 2nd; Six sprays penstemon, Ruth Yutze, 1st; Raymond Nelson, 2nd; Six roses, Ed Hjelm, 1st; Lloyd Houston, 2nd; Zinnia (12 pom-pom), Raymond Nelson, 1st; Zinnia (12 large), Raymond Nelson, 2nd; Cosmos (25 mixed), Lulu Carlson, 1st; Calendula (12), Mrs. Priset, 1st; Kate Bramer, 2nd; Verbena (12), Mrs. Mervine, 1st; Ruth Yutze, 2nd; Miniatures (3-inch), Jeanne Hays, 1st; Kate Bramer, 2nd; All blue in blue container, Mrs. Houston, 1st; Mrs. Mervine, 2nd; All white in white container, Ruth Yutze. Warren Players Set Campaign Dates and Repeat on Try-Outs

Two important announcements that have to do with early fall activities are made today by officers of the Warren Players Club. The president, Mrs. Wallace Cowden, makes public the date for the annual campaign, to begin September 25 and continue through October 2. Brackett Ayers, who is campaign manager, will be assisted by Mrs. H. R. Lewis and the membership committee, she reports.

For the tenth year, the Players are offering a program of public and studio plays, and group activities in the theatrical field. Both season tickets and memberships will be available during the campaign period.

The second announcement is made by Mrs. Paul Coe, who stresses importance of another try-out period at eight o'clock this evening at the Woman's Club for the purpose of assembling the cast for the first fall production.

The club is giving Clare Booth's "Margin for Error" on October 10-11 and there is considerable interest locally in the news that this same comedy-melodrama was chosen for the closing production of the Pine Grove Playhouse at Cambridge Springs this week, running from September 2 through the 7th. Curtain time is 8:15 o'clock at the resort theatre.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with aching and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills. Used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help you 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Flower Show Proves Big Attraction For Garden Club Group

Sheffield, Sept. 5—Held Saturday afternoon and evening in the township building, the Garden Club's annual flower show was an outstanding success and, despite rainy weather, attracted a large number of visitors. 175 of whom took time to sign the visitors' register provided by the sponsor.

Although the show was somewhat smaller in number of entries than in 1939, the flowers were far superior in quality, including conformation and color.

Appreciative of the help and co-operation received in staging the show, the Garden Club wishes to publicly thank the supervisors for granting the use of the township building; the Methodist church board for use of tables and benches; Mr. Dahl and Mr. Hjelm and Fred Carlson for transporting tables and benches; the firemen for their courteous help; the judges for their kindness and fairness in judging; and anyone else who in any way helped to make the show the attractive success it was.

Member Takes Bride

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hartung, of Tamaqua, announce the marriage of their daughter, Elfrida M., to Frederick Jaffin, of Youngsville, member of the Youngsville High School faculty.

The wedding took place in Norfolk, Va., on August 27, performed by the Rev. Paul Plawin in Trinity Lutheran church. Lieut. and Mrs. L. H. Hartung attended the couple.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the officers' Club of the naval operating base at Norfolk, and the couple left for a wedding trip through the south and east.

Mr. Jaffin is a graduate of the Bloomsburg State Teachers College and attended the graduate school of Pennsylvania State College. His wife is a graduate of the Bloomsburg College, also, and is now employed at Harrisburg.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN
Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Grant Suttons Are Honored By Friends For Golden Wedding

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sutton at Tiona was the scene of a very pleasant gathering Wednesday in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Relatives and friends from near and far gathered to help the couple celebrate this important event. A delicious chicken dinner was served at one o'clock, with places for 45 at a table attractively arranged and placed in the shade of the maple trees. Bouquets of asters and gladioli added to the summery effect.

A social afternoon was enjoyed, renewing old friendships and acquaintances and a lovely supper was served at six o'clock. The table was prettily decorated and centered with a beautiful three-tier gold-colored wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. This was a gift from members of the Cherry Grove Club. Bouquets of garden flowers completed the appointments.

The happy couple were presented with many beautiful gifts and numerous bouquets of flowers as remembrances of the occasion. The Suttons were married September 4, 1880 at Hearts Content, by Rev. Siegfried. Their large circle of relatives and friends join in wishing them many more happy anniversaries in the years to come.

More than 100 persons visited their home during the day and extended hearty congratulations. The oldest visitor was Mrs. Farmer, of Clarendon, and the youngest was Ralph Show, Jr., of Russell. Two persons attending the golden wedding party were also guests at the wedding. They were Mrs. Arthur Show, of Akeley, and Mrs. Harry Markham, of Franklinville, N. Y.

Eighteen To Enter Warren General Hospital Training School Sunday; Two New Instructors Announced

Eighteen girls from communities throughout this section will commence the class which will enter the Warren General Hospital's school of nursing next Sunday evening. At the same time, two new instructors in the school will take up their duties, it was learned today. The new instructors are Miss Ruth Vanderzee, of San Antonio, Texas, who will hold the position of instructor in nursing aids, and Miss Marie Hodges, of Hamilton, Ohio, who will be instructor in pediatrics.

Miss Vanderzee arrived in Warren last night and already is busy engaged in making plans for the class which is about to enter the Warren General Hospital. She was graduated from the Robert E. Green Memorial Hospital, San Antonio, Texas, and received her bachelor's degree from Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., where she majored in education.

Miss Hodges is expected to arrive at the hospital today. She was graduated from the School of Nursing and Health of the University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, Ohio, where she majored in science.

It was also announced today that Miss Jane McGarity, who attended summer school at State College, has returned to her position as head nurse on the men's ward.

It was revealed today that of the list of young ladies who are entering the hospital for training on Sunday, at least one is taking the nurses' training course for the primary purpose of becoming an airline hostess. The name of the girl was not given, at her own request.

The local school of nursing received its charter on December 13, 1901, and the first class of only three members were graduated in 1903. Including that first class a total of 221 nurses have completed the training course at the Warren General Hospital. Six seniors in the school will be graduated in October.

Members of the class entering the training school Sunday night include the following: Margaret Louise Benson, Elizabeth Mae Latt and Beitha Jane Swanson, of Sheffield; Mary Frances Chingel, Kathryn Louise Daehoussen, and Margaret Elizabeth Engel, of Tidoute; Ruth Evelyn Coons and Willowa Jones, of Corty; Betty Eleanor Holland and Florence Mae Southworth, of Union City; Reva Dorothy Ion and Dorothy Ellen Young, of Johnsonburg; Elizabeth Jane Duilee, of Degolia; Mary Jean Hannum, of Bradford; Joan Pienoth, of Kane; Virginia Gertrude Thornton, of Duke Center; Edna Frances Coan, of Russell, and Louise Falk, of Warren.

Eighteen To Enter Warren General Hospital Training School Sunday; Two New Instructors Announced

Eighteen girls from communities throughout this section will comprise the class which will enter the Warren General Hospital's school of nursing next Sunday evening. At the same time, two new instructors in the school will take up their duties, it was learned today.

The new instructors are Miss Ruth Vanderzee, of San Antonio, Texas, who will hold the position of instructor in nursing arts, and Miss Marie Hodges, of Hamilton, Ohio, who will be instructor in sciences.

Miss Vanderzee arrived in Warren last night and already is busily engaged in making plans for the class which is about to enter the Warren General Hospital. She was graduated from the Robert B. Green Memorial Hospital, San Antonio, Texas, and received her bachelor's degree from Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., where she majored in education.

Miss Hodges is expected to arrive at the hospital today. She was graduated from the School of Nursing and Health of the University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati General Hospital. She received her degree from Wheaton College, where she majored in science.

It was also announced today that Miss Jane McGarry, who attended summer school at State College, has returned to her position as head nurse on the men's ward. It was revealed today that of the list of young ladies who are entering the hospital for training on Sunday, at least one is taking the nurses' training course for the primary purpose of becoming an airline hostess. The name of the girl was not given, at her own request.

The local school of nursing received its charter on December 13, 1901, and the first class of only three members were graduated in 1903. Including that first class, a total of 221 nurses have completed the training course at the Warren General Hospital. Six seniors in the school will be graduated in October.

Members of the class entering the training school Sunday include the following: Margaret Louise Benson, Elizabeth Mae Latt and Bertha Jane Swanson, of Sheffield; Mary Frances Clinger, Kathryn Louise Daehoussen and Margaret Elizabeth Engel, of Tidjoute; Ruth Evelyn Coons and Willow Jones, of Corry; Betty Eleanor Holland and Florence Mae Southworth, of Union City; Reva Dorothy Ion and Dorothy Ellen Young, of Johnsonburg; Elizabeth Jane Duffee, of Degolia; Mary Jean Hannum, of Bradford; Joan Pierotti, of Kane; Virginia Gertrude Thornton, of Duke Center; Edna Frances Coan, of Russell, and Louise Falk, of Warren.

POLITICAL FORUM

Articles appearing in this department are furnished by representatives of the respective parties in Warren county and are not intended to reflect the views or opinions of the publisher.

REPUBLICAN

In order to vote in the presidential election, every citizen must be registered. Except for primary elections, it is not necessary to designate a party affiliation; the voter may register as an independent or non-partisan. But, this year, with the issues clearly drawn and the failure of the New Deal written across all the land, free men and women are proud to enroll themselves in the Republican Party, which stands for the efficiency in government under which America can be revitalized and renewed.

One month from today the registration lists will be closed. After October 5th no one can be registered for the presidential election. Every citizen who wishes to cast his ballot in November must be enrolled; name and correct address must be registered.

On September 26th polling places throughout the county will be open for registration, but, in addition, at any time up to October 5th voters may enroll themselves at the permanent Registration Office in the Court House.

Tomorrow night in the Odd Fellows Hall, in Youngsville, Mrs. Caroline M. Huber, vice-chairman of the Republican State Committee, will speak to an assembly of volunteer workers and all those who are interested in the registration of voters throughout the county. This meeting will launch an enthusiastic drive for Republican registrations.

The State Committee wants every citizen to be acquainted with the provisions of the Permanent Registration Act, so that every individual who so desires may cast a free ballot in November. This act provides that naturalized citizens must present their naturalization papers to prove their citizenship in order to register. It also provides that the voter must be a resident of Pennsylvania for two years and of the precinct in which he votes for two months before the date of the election. If the voter has been a resident of Pennsylvania and has removed from the state and then returned, he must have been a resident of the state for one year since his return. If a first voter will be twenty-one before November 5th he may register at any time up to October 5th. If the voter has moved since the last election he must see that his new address is correctly noted. If the voter has not been a resident for two years he must re-register.

The Republican Party has no use for the shabby tools of political coercion; it has no desire to make a public funds a huge reservoir to bribe the American people. It wants one thing only; it wants free men and women to cast their ballots freely and honestly and thoughtfully. It is confident of the result.

Annual Reunion of Air Squadron Held At Tidioute Over Labor Day

Tidioute, Sept. 3.—The 840th Air Squadron held its annual reunion at the Hotel Tidioute last Saturday, Sunday and Monday, with a large number in attendance from several states.

This squadron was organized in Waco, Texas, and shipped to England, serving on detached service with the British Independent Air Force during 1917 and 1918. It is said to have been the only force that brought the first World War home to Germany.

The duty of the squadron was reprisal raids on concentration centers, ammunition dumps and railway centers behind the German lines. Rain or shine, hot or cold, they were there.

MEMORY OF THE MOON

by Jeanne Bowman

YESTERDAY: The Cabrillos are furious at Constance's plan to keep the ranch. Pedro writes, asking for her decision.

Chapter 18 All's Fair

CONSTANCE had carried the letter to her window to read. Now she looked out. Rain had followed the snow and now, with lowering clouds dripping half rain, half snow, it was as miserable underfoot as it was overhead. Constance thought she had never seen a more beautiful day.

She returned to her desk, pulled it before the hearth, snapped on a low light and started composing the reply. The check she started as the velvet robe she wore.

And then she wrote, swiftly.

Dear Pedro:—
Mr. Raskthorne will write the formal decision to Judge Frank, but I would like you to know why I reached my decision.

Really, I have never had to reach one. At no time have I, personally, wanted to sell the ranch.

Despite your belief that the Cabrillos have thought of it only as a means of income, this has not been true of me, or perhaps, as Meg says, I am not a Cabrillo.

To me, the ranch has always been a symbol of home. I have worked for the day when I could return there to live.

Your offer forced me to return for a visit, and that visit made me know I could not part with it without first trying to save it for myself.

Perhaps it is wrong for me to follow your plan to convert the place into a dairy farm, however the plan is not original, and when you are fighting for something you love, all's fair.

I know your father's contract allows him to remain as manager, as long as the property remains in the hands of the Cabrillos.

I am bringing in a dairy expert if he... and you, care to remain under these circumstances, and—

Constance stopped to nibble the end of her pen.

Why couldn't she think of El Cabrillo without the Taylors there? Why couldn't she divorce them from the ranch? It was the ranch she loved. Were they as much a part of the ranch as the house and the willow trees, and the hills and the ocean?

They loved it. That justified her next words. She was confident it was the only reason she wrote them.

—and I hope you will find it convenient to stay, at least during the three years I am taking for my experiment.

I will arrive, on New Year's day. May I now hear whether or not you will remain... at your earliest convenience?

Michael.

P.S. Pedro... A Cabrillo raised the money. Or was it a Mahoney?

She waited anxiously for the reply. She watched the city burrow into the snow for the winter. She made trips with John, and then one evening she returned to find a letter awaiting her.

Peter, Senior, had written it. She opened it before John.

"Inside Seats"

Constance laughed as she read Peter Taylor's letter. She could imagine Meg standing around, wondering if Peter's pen would gouge through the paper and scratch the desk, could imagine Pedro, standing by chuckling, dark eyes sardonic.

"Of all the fool young women you are the prize," he wrote. "A snowball in hades has a better chance of enduring than you have on a dairy farm."

And the concluding paragraph. John Raskthorne saw nothing humorous about it, but Constance laughed, hysterically.

to work... undercover. How- ever I am hiring the dairyman and the employees have been with the Cabrillos since time began. I don't intend worrying about their making any headway."

John drew an ottoman close. "I'm jealous of that Taylor," he confided, half ruefully. "He'll be there seeing you every day. Constance, how about taking me on as your business manager?"

"Dollar-a-year man?" inquired Constance. "But don't be foolish, John. There is no reason for seeing Taylor every day, or even every week... and what if I should?" she added. "Look, here's a letter from the State Agricultural college, must be Pederson's credentials; Pederson is the Dane Mrs. MacKelvey believes in so firmly."

Constance tried several times to interest the family in the ranch. "Lingie, a man graduating from a cow-college," disparaged Donna. "What good are those references? Who cares if he's had ten years of practical husbandry since then? Anyone who could stand to be around a cow could run a dairy."

Bound By Kindness

CONSTANCE gave up. She was leaving for the west, two days before Christmas. There would be nothing merry or peaceful among the Cabrillos if she remained.

She had one last chore. She must tell her story. Fortunately the ranch had imagination. In his account, he was the history of Michael Mahoney, as well as the Cabrillos, and he gave full credit for the present condition of the ranch to the Taylors, who had carried on despite changing conditions.

"This," stated John, striking the bar as he drove with Constance to her west-bound train, will put a final check on Cabrillo credit. No man, aside from the one who loves you, will believe you can make good against such odds."

Constance settled into her compartment. Lamson bringing evidence of John Raskthorne's affection with him, a few magazines and a number of books on dairy farming.

She had received her Christmas gift from him, a fleece-lined coat of softest leather; a leather bound wristwatch; laced boots of softest doekskin, and riding in the baggage car, a handsome stock saddle.

Lamson, the only family representative, gave her an agitated farewell. "Be careful of the horses, Miss Conchita. I wish you would wait until I could join you."

"You can join me anytime you're ready," Constance assured him. "Someone has to drive my car out in the spring."

Lamson left and she turned to John. How could she think of him as a sweetheart, when he was father, mother and brother to her? He'd thought of the things Nadine should have remembered. He'd stood by her through her troubles, as Don should have stood. Now he was letting her go on, into a new world, without trying to hold her; letting her try out her wings, as a father would. And he'd be there, in the background, waiting, if the wings weren't strong enough.

"John, you're binding me to you with your kindness," she whispered into his shoulder, and leaned there a moment.

And then the train was moving out and she was alone. Lights slid past her window, colored lights, tiny trees glittering in snow windows along the railroad snaking hiding the ugliness of the moon place held in the night.

Once, after she had turned out her light and lay watching the landscape, a sleigh filled with people old and young... a family, all together, going somewhere to celebrate the holiday.

Constance thought of her mother's farewell, a quick, light, perfume kiss. "I hope you're not making a mistake, dear."

Constance had watched the glittering parade, seeing herself in severe black tailored clothes. Now she thought, bitterly, "The runt of the litter; the queer cross-breed; the throwback."

Morning came with the snow falling thick, blurring the landscape and casting an unearthly glow in the compartment. The diner was filled with families going home for Christmas; with commercial men, hurrying home for one day with their families; even the waiters were filled with the joy of the holidays.

Constance retreated from the happy people. She rang for a table and buried her thoughts in the future.

Here were the letters pertaining to transactions. She'd read them through, every one of them, but later, now she would study dairying. She read, Holsteins, Jerseys, Guernseys, Short-horns, Herefords, Galloways, Devons and Durhams marched across the pages of the books. Feed mash, tillage, housing, marketing, crammed into her mind.

What would Michael Mahoney have thought of his throwback, she wondered once. She closed the books and leaned back assured. She had done exactly what Michael would have done under these circumstances.

"I can't lose," she cried aloud. "I can't lose, it isn't in the cards; it's just history repeating itself."

POLITICAL FORUM

Articles appearing in this department are furnished by representatives of the respective parties in Warren county and are not intended to reflect the views or opinions of the publisher.

REPUBLICAN

In order to vote in the presidential election, every citizen must be registered. Except for primary elections, it is not necessary to designate a party affiliation; the voter may register as an independent or non-partisan. But, this year, with the issues clearly drawn and the failure of the New Deal written across all the land, free men and women are proud to enroll themselves in the Republican Party, which stands for the efficiency in government under which America can be revitalized and renewed.

One month from today the registration lists will be closed. After October 5th no one can be registered for the presidential election. Every citizen who wishes to cast his ballot in November must be enrolled; his name and correct address must be registered.

On September 26th polling places throughout the county will be open for registration, but, in addition, at any time up to October 5th voters may enroll themselves at the permanent Registration Office in the Court House.

Tomorrow night in the Odd Fellows Hall in Youngsville Mrs. Caroline M. Huber, vice-chairman of the Republican State Committee, will speak to an assembly of volunteer workers and all those who are interested in the registration of voters throughout the county. This meeting will launch an enthusiastic drive for Republican registrations.

The State Committee wants every citizen to be acquainted with the provisions of the Permanent Registration Act, so that every individual who so desires may cast a free ballot in November. This act provides that naturalized citizens must present their naturalization papers to prove their citizenship in order to register. It also provides that the voter must be a resident of Pennsylvania for two years and of the precinct in which he votes for two months before the date of the election. If the voter has been a resident of Pennsylvania and has removed from the state and then returned, he must have been a resident of the state for one year since his return. If a first-voter will be twenty-one before November 5th he may register at any time up to October 5th. If the voter has moved since the last election he must see that his new address is correctly noted. If the voter has not been registered for two years he must re-register.

The Republican Party has no use for the shabby tools of political coercion; it has no desire to make of public funds a huge reservoir to bribe the American people. It wants one thing only; it wants free men and women to cast their ballots freely and honestly and thoughtfully. It is confident of the result.

DEMOCRAT

Many things may be said of the nomination of Wendell Willkie for President by the Republican party and of his activities since that event. It was unprecedented, for instance, for a major political party to choose as its standard-bearer a man who had never been identified with public service, whose views on leading political issues were unknown, and whose very name was strange to the country till a few short weeks before the convention.

It was unusual for a once powerful political party to choose as its leader a man who had never voted its ticket unless it was within the last two or three years. It was ridiculous to the point of absurdity that the Republican party, which for 50 years had held up Tammany Hall as the symbol of all political villainy, should pick to lead its cause that Democratic organization. It was a new experience for the American people to see a man who had been given the honor and dignity of a presidential nomination loll about for photographers in smoking-rooms posing while retelling wise-cracks in keeping with a cafe atmosphere.

It was a brazen affront to the citizens of this country to offer for their suffrages a corporation lobbyist whose whole career had been devoted either to the promotion of causes against the interest of the public or to the destruction of measures which had been taken for their benefit.

With the nomination safely in his hands the candidate forsook his Fifth Avenue residence, his office in the Wall Street district of New York, and betook himself to the West to mix in the crowds at fish-fries and rodeos in order to attain the aspect of one of the plain people. Notification ceremonies were held at Elwood, Indiana, which the candidate had not visited for years, where most of the residents did not know him and many confessed they had not even heard of him till lately. It was all promoted by hallyho artists for the same pinchbeck purposes of making the public forget Wall Street, Fifth Avenue and the Commonwealth and Southern with its $75,000 salary.

A short time ago the United States Treasury issued instructions to the public for the detection of counterfeit bills. The people will need no instructions to discover the spuriousness of the Willkie candidacy. It has phony written in capital letters all over it.

Annual Reunion of Air Squadron Held At Tidioute Over Labor Day

Tidioute, Sept. 3.—The 840th Aero Squadron held its annual reunion at the Hotel Tidioute last Saturday, Sunday and Monday, with a large number in attendance from several states.

This squadron was organized in Waco, Texas, and shipped to England, serving on detached service with the British Independent Air Force during 1917 and 1918. It is said to have been the only force that brought the first World War home to Germany.

The duty of the squadron was reprisal raids on concentration centers, ammunition dumps and railway centers behind the German lines. Rain or shine, hot or (Turn to Page Eleven)

MEMORY OF THE MOON

by Jeanne Bowman

YESTERDAY: The Cabrillos are furious at Constance's plan to keep the ranch. Pedro writes, asking for her decision.

Chapter 18 All's Fair

CONSTANCE had carried the letter to her window to read. Now she looked out. Rain had followed the snow and now, with lowering clouds dripping half rain, half snow, it was as miserable underfoot as it was overhead. Constance thought she had never seen a more beautiful day.

She returned to her desk, pulled it before the hearth, snapped on a low light and started composing the reply, her cheeks as scarlet as the velvet robe she wore.

And then she wrote, swiftly.

Dear Pedro:—

Mr. Raskthorne will write the formal decision to Judge Frank, but I would like you to know why I reached my decision.

Really, I have never had to reach one. At no time have I, personally, wanted to sell the ranch. Despite your belief that the Cabrillos have bought of it only as a means of income, this has not been true of me, or perhaps, as Meg says, I am not a Cabrillo.

To me, the ranch has always been a symbol of home. I have worked for the day when I could return there to live.

Your offer forced me to return for a visit, and that visit made me know I could not part with it without first trying to save it for myself.

Perhaps it is wrong for me to follow your plan to convert the place into a dairy farm, however the plan is not original, and when you are fighting for something you love... all's fair.

I know your father's contract allows him to remain as manager, as long as the property remains in the hands of the Cabrillos.

I am bringing in a dairy expert. If he... and you, care to remain under these circumstances, and—

Constance stopped to nibble the end of her pen.

Why couldn't she think of El Cabrillo without the Taylors there? Why couldn't she divorce them from the ranch; it was the ranch she loved. Where they as much a part of the ranch as the house and the willow trees, and the hills and the ocean?

They loved it. That justified her next words. She was confident it was the only reason she wrote them.

"—and I hope you will find it convenient to stay, at least during the three years I am taking for my experiment.

I will arrive, on New Year's day. May I now hear whether or not you will remain... at your earliest convenience?

Michael.

P.S. Pedro... A Cabrillo raised the money. Or was it a Mahoney?

She waited anxiously for the reply. She watched the city burrow into the snow for the winter. She made trips with John, and then one evening she returned to find a letter awaiting her.

Peter, Senior, had written it. She opened it before John.

"Lingside Seats"

CONSTANCE laughed as she read Peter Taylor's letter. She could imagine Meg standing around, wondering if Peter's pen would gouge through the paper and scratch the desk, could imagine Pedro, standing by chuckling, dark eyes sardonic.

"—of all the fool young women you are the prize," he wrote. "A snowball in ladies has a better chance of enduring than you have on a dairy farm."

And the concluding paragraph. John Raskthorne saw nothing humorous about it, but Constance laughed, hysterically.

"—you bet we're staying. We have ringside seats at the biggest stock show the west has ever put on—"

John paced up and down, then stopped before Constance. "Chita, there's something queer about their staying on. I don't like it. No business men, and I have great respect for the business ability of cattlemen, with the capital these fellows have, would take three years out of their lives for the pleasure of watching a girl make a failure of the place they wanted. Connie, what is this son of Taylor's like?"

"Oh, my goodness," gasped Constance. "Why, he's... a... well, he's... I don't know how to describe him, John, he's sort of insolent and... well, we've fought everytime we met," she hastened to say. "He doesn't like Cabrillos," she explained. "He thinks them completely worthless."

John resumed his pacing and again stopped before Constance. "The Taylors are remaining for one of two reasons," he stated. "Either this young Taylor hopes to marry El Cabrillo... or else they will work against you... undercover."

Constance reached for a cigaret and for once John did not spring to light it for her. She was glad. The silly little white cylinder was trembling. Either reason was disconcerting. One more than another. "Idiot," she charged herself.

"As the young Taylor can't marry El Cabrillo, unless Donna should succumb, and I can't imagine Donna falling for a 'quero,' Constance began, "he must mean to work... undercover. However, as I am hiring the dairyman and the employees have been with the Cabrillos since time began, I don't intend worrying about their making any headway."

John drew an ottoman close. "I'm jealous of that Taylor," he confessed, half ruefully. "He'll be there seeing you every day. Constance, how about taking me or as your business manager?"

"Dollar-a-year man?" inquired Constance. "But don't be foolish, John, there's no reason for my seeing Taylor every day, or even every week... and what if I should?" she added. "Look, here's a letter from the State Agricultural college must be Pedro's credentials; Pedro is the Dane Mrs. MacKelvey believes in so firmly."

Constance tried several times to interest the family in the ranch. "Imagine a man graduating from a cow-college," disparaged Donna. "What good are those references? Who cares if he's had ten years of practical husbandry since then? Anyone who could stand to be around a cow could run a dairy."

Bound By Kindness

CONSTANCE gave up. She was leaving for the west, two days before Christmas. There would be nothing merry or peaceful among the Cabrillos if she remained.

She had one last chore. She must tell her story. Fortunately the reporter had imagination. Into his account he wove the history of Michael Mahoney, as well as the Cabrillos, and, he gave full credit for the present conditions of the ranch to the Taylors, who had carried on despite changing conditions.

"That," stated John, striking the paper as he drove with Constance to her west-bound train, will put a final check on Cabrillo credit. No man, aside from the one who loves you, will believe you can make good against such odds."

Constance settled into her compartment. Lamson bringing evidence of John Raskthorne's affection with him. Candy, flowers, magazines and a number of books on dairy farming.

She had received her Christmas gift from him, a fleece-lined coat of softest leather; a leather bound wristwatch; laced boots of softest doekin, and, riding in the baggage car, a handsome stock saddle.

Lamson, the only family representative, gave her an agitated farewell. "Be careful of the horses, Miss Conchita, I wish you would wait until I could join you."

"You can join me anytime you're ready," Constance assured him. "Someone has to drive my car out in the spring."

Lamson left and she turned to John. How could she think of him as a sweetheart, when he was father, mother and brother to her? He'd thought of the things Nadine should have remembered. He'd stood by her through her troubles as Don should have stood. Now he was letting her go, into a new world, without trying to hold her; letting her try out her wings, as a father would. And he'd be there, in the background, waiting, if the wings weren't strong enough.

"John, you're binding me to you with your kindness," she whispered into his shoulder, and leaned there a moment.

And then the train was moving out and she was alone. Lights slid past her window, colored lights, tiny trees glittering in snow windows along the railroad, snow hiding the ugliness of the mean places which held them.

Once, after she had turned out her light and lay watching the landscape, a sleigh filled with people old and young... a family, all together, going somewhere to celebrate the holiday.

Constance thought of her mother's farewell, a quick, light, perfumed kiss. "I hope you're not making a mistake, dear."

Constance had watched the glittering parade, seeing herself in severe black tailored clothes. Now she thought, bitterly, "The runt of the litter; the queer cross-breed; the throwback."

Morning came with the snow falling thick, blurring the landscape and casting an unearthly glow in the compartment. The diner was filled with families going home for Christmas; with commercial men, hurrying home for one day with their families; even the waiters were filled with the joy of the holidays.

Constance retreated from the happy people. She rang for a table and buried her thoughts in the future.

Here were the letters pertaining to transactions. She'd read them through, every one of them... but later, now she would study dairying. She read Holsteins, Jerseys, Guernseys, Shorthorns, Herefords, Galloways, Devons and Durhams marched across the pages of the books. Feed mash, tillage, housing, marketing, crammed into her mind.

What would Michael Mahoney have thought of his throwback, she wondered once. She closed the books and leaned back assured. She had done exactly what Michael would have done under these circumstances.

"I can't lose," she cried aloud. "I can't, it isn't in the cards; it's just history repeating itself."

TIMES TOPICS

TOWNSEND MEETING

All Townsend Club members and friends are invited to the meeting to be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Eagles' hall.

EMPLOYMENT

The 1940 total of jobs filled by the Pennsylvania State Employment Service passed the 100,000 mark in the week ending August 16. Secretary of Labor and Industry Lewis G. Hines reports.

ATTEND SCHOOL

Carl Hagstrom, Leroy Fromberg and Clifford Scott, of the Watson Hose Company, and Regis Geitner, of the Struthers Hose Company, have returned from State College, where they attended the firemen's training school.

SUNSHINE

Dr. M. F. Barnes, of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture Diagnostic Laboratory, is a strong believer in adequate sunshine for the control and eradication of many diseases as well as for proper growth and development of farm animals.

STAFF ADDITIONS

Two new physicians have just been added to the medical staff at the Warren State Hospital, Dr. Charles Poucher, of Rochester, Pa., and Dr. Robert Noce, of Sharon, who has interned at Hamot Hospital in Erie.

MEETING TONIGHT

The regular meeting of Dinmoor-Schwing Post No. 631, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be held this evening at eight o'clock in the post rooms. A large class of candidates will be initiated. Refreshments will be served by the entertainment committee.

EXPORTS HIGHER

Exports through the port of Philadelphia during the first six months of 1940 were 47 percent higher than for the same period of 1939, the Department of Commerce reports. The exports total from the Philadelphia customs district for the first half of this year totaled $61,745,437.

ASKS EXCEPTIONS

County Treasurer A. M. Gibson, in announcing that his report with respect to sales for delinquent taxes on seated lands has been filed with the court as of September 2, reminds taxpayers that exceptions thereto must be filed within 60 days after date of return. Otherwise the report will be confirmed absolutely.

CLINIC AT HOSPITAL

Dr. Arthur G. Davis, orthopedic surgeon of Erie, will be in Warren next Tuesday, September 10, for the Crippled Children's Committee clinic at the Warren General Hospital. Parents or doctors having cases to refer to the clinic are asked to contact the nurse, Mrs. Orrie Westover Maas, phone 2723, or at her office in the court house.

ACCEPTS POSITION

Leland F. Milspaw, former Sugar Grove resident and a teacher at Lander for several years, has accepted a position as head of the vocational agriculture department in the Richfield township schools. Mr. Milspaw is a graduate of Edinboro State Teachers College and Pennsylvania State College, where he received a degree in agricultural education this summer.

INSECTICIDES

Persons, particularly the average homeowner, who are interested in finding a safe insecticide or one which is less risky to have about the home, should consider one of the newer preparations containing rotenone, according to the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. When used directed, these materials are effective against many of the more common pests, but are harmless to man and other warm blooded animals.

DESTRUCTIVE PESTS

Although it is impossible to measure accurately the total damage caused by destructive pests, the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture estimates that about 6,000 species of insects collectively destroy $2,000,000,000 worth of property each year in America. Also, it is estimated that 36 out of these 6,000 pests cause about half of the total damage. Department officials state that the least few-thirds of this damage is preventable if proper known control methods are put into actual practice.

MOHAWK PROPERTY

The real estate and buildings of the Mohawk Plywood Company, South South street, is being advertised for public auction, to start at 11 a. m. on Tuesday, September 10. This veneer and panel plant is reported suited to any type of manufacturing, with its high ceilings, concrete ground floor, large doors and approximately 40,000 square feet of floor space, divided into three floors. The property includes about three and one-half acres of ground with railroad siding on Irvine and Euclid streets.

WARREN COUNTY WOMAN'S DEATH HELD ACCIDENT

A verdict of accidental death was announced last night by Chautauque County Coroner Samuel T. Bowers in the case of Mrs. Almida Mary Nicklas, 26, of Sheffield, who was instantly killed last week in a crash at the intersection of the Kiantone and Busti roads, south of Jamestown.

Coroner Bowers and Assistant District Attorney Ernest D. Leet conducted the inquest.

Drivers of the two cars involved, Charles Nicklas, husband of the victim, and Harvey E. Pangborn, of Allegany, were questioned at the inquest. Neither was held.

According to the coroner, Mr. Nicklas testified that he and his wife were driving to Jamestown last Wednesday night for a spaghetti supper, that he was driving about 50 miles an hour from Warren to Jamestown and was traveling between 45 and 50 miles an hour at the time of the crash. According to the coroner, Nicklas said he had forgotten about the crossing intersection and was thinking about the entrance into the Jamestown-Frewsburg highway some distance ahead.

Pangborn testified that he had borrowed the automobile he was operating from Ralph Nash, of South Dayton, in order to take his wife to the home of a sister in Busti. He stated that he did not see the stop sign at the intersection where the accident occurred, but that he would have stopped if he had seen it. Mr. Pangborn testified that he was traveling about 15 miles an hour at the time.

Annual Reunion of Air Squadron Held at Tidoute Over Labor Day

cold, they never dropped less than 100 tons of explosive behind the German lines each night, it was stated.

The squadron participated one hundred percent in the drive in the Argonne and contributed much to the breakdown of the German morale and the eventual end of the war, it is pointed out.

A three-day reunion is held over Labor Day each year. The group was so favorably impressed with Tidoute that the Warren county town was again selected for the 1940 get-together. This is the first time since the start of the reunions that one place has had the gathering for two years in succession.

Those present at the reunion included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shanklin, of Frankford, Ind.; Dr. and Mrs. Louis Thompson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Colvin and son, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly and son, Mr. and Mrs. H. Miller and son, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Welsh and son, of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. James Welsh, of Canton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Sampson and son, of Springfield, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons, Roland Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Chapel, Mr. and Mrs. Dune and daughters, of Cleveland; Mr. Frazer, of Bay Village, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Lenz and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Keller, of LeMoyne, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Bachmuth and son, of Steubenville, Ohio; Frank Randolph, Clayton Lutz, Peck Keifer, of Reading; Miss Margaret Fry, of Johnstown; Alex. Elliott, of Armaugh, Pa.; Pat Donovan, of Aliquippa; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Riggie, Sewell S. Shrieve, Harry O. Brine, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Seifert, A. C. Seifert, of Bethlehem; Lawrence Butler, of Kittanning; and Sneed Mays, of Oil City.

The picture of Abraham Lincoln has appeared on eight different United States postage stamps.

JACK KRAMER IS NEW THREAT IN TENNIS CIRCLE

New York, Sept. 5.—(P)—In casting around for some one who could dethrone Bobby Riggs from his national singles tennis throne, the experts recently voted Don McNeill of Oklahoma City and Frank Kovacs, of Oakland, the most likely to succeed.

Now the select twosome is a trio. Standing directly in the way of everyone with championship ambitions is a 19-year-old youngster with a "crew" haircut and a will to win—Jack Kramer, of Belvedere Gardens, Calif.

Kramer's fine all-court game is not exactly new, but the confidence he gained last week in winning the national doubles with Ted Schroeder is brand new. He already has swept aside Gil Hunt, of Washington, D. C., who can, on a given day, be the best tennis player in the country; Eddie Allon, another tough former, and Sidney E. Wood, former Wimbledon champion.

He faces a tough test today in his Hank Prusoff, the Seattle giant. While Kramer was busy impressing students of the game, Kovacs was entertaining the gallery.

Frank finally won, after bewildering E. Victor Seixas, of Philadelphia, and providing the day's highest spot in a schedule of matches that saw all the seeded stars move ahead, in most cases, without too much effort.

Riggs and McNeill turned in workmanlike jobs and won handily. Riggs had things easy, while Prusoff, Bitay Grant, Joe Hunt all had their work cut out for them.

The victory lifted the Tigers back into second place, three games back of the Yankees.

The Yankees were the winners of Washington's Lefty Goss, who had a season until yesterday, and a game all season until yesterday.

The Red Sox hit close to pennant contenders, sweeping two extra-inning games from the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-5 and 5-4. In the first, Joe Cronin singled with the bases loaded. In the second, Tom Carey performed the same service. Cronin and Jim Fox also had home runs in the opener.

The St. Louis Browns continued to make trouble by whipping the Chicago White Sox, 4-1, with Bob Harris scattering eight hits.

In the National League, the champion Cincinnati Reds copied their 33rd one-run victory with a 3-2, 12-inning verdict over the Pittsburgh Pirates in a night game.

The contest was a scoreless struggle between Bucky Walters and Max Butcher for 10 innings. Then, in the 11th, the Pirates made two runs, and the Reds duplicated.

Finally, in the 12th, the always reliable Bill Werber singled home a run that meant the ball game.

The Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals maintained their margins behind the leaders by winning night encounters. Luke Hamlin pitched the Dodgers to a 3-0 shutout over the last-place Phillies, keeping seven safeties well spaced.

Max Lanier performed the mound chore for the Cardinals, holding the Chicago Cubs scoreless for seven innings, but getting help from Clyde Shoun in the ninth before winning, 4-2.

One of the season's finest pitching duels was rendered by Dick Erickson of the Boston Bees and Carl Hubbell of the New York Giants as the Bees scored a 2-0 shutout. The only runs of the game came on a homer by Eddie Miller in the seventh inning. Erickson allowed five hits, only one in the first seven innings during which time he faced just 22 batters. Hubbell gave six hits in the eight innings he worked.

NELSON AND LITTLE ENTER SCRANTON OPEN

Scranton, Sept. 5.—(P)—Byron Nelson, Inverness Country Club pro of Toledo, Ohio, who beat Sammy Sneed to win the Professional Golf Association championship at the Hershey Country Club Monday, and Lawson Little, pro at the Bretton Woods, N. H., club who captured the American Open Title in Cleveland last June, will be entries in the second annual Anthracite $5,000 Open championship, starting tomorrow at the Country Club of Scranton links, at Clarks Summit.

Henry Picard, Hershey club pro and defending champion; Horton Smith, Tony Penna, E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, Sammy Sneed and other topnotch professionals, along with a big field of amateurs, have already checked in for the three days of 72 holes of medal play, scheduled Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Yesterday's Stars

Bill Werber, Reds—Hit single in 12th inning, beating Pirates.

There is a species of snake in Death Valley, Calif. that travels underground, beneath the surface of the soft white sand.

If the recommendations of the P. I. L. A.'s football steering committee is accepted by the 898 member schools, the annual Erie Academy-Warren Labor Day game, which most everyone hoped would be continued year after year, will be ruled out. The committee recommends that the first regularly scheduled game shall not be prior to the end of the first week of school. This rule is not as foolish as it may appear on first glance, especially in the light of another paragraph in the report which suggests allowing three weeks of practice before one must regularly scheduled game. There are some schools that would start their season well before school opens if not held back.

This bureau for once can toss a laurel wreath instead of a brickbat in the general direction of the P. I. A. A. on the suggested change in length of practice. We believe that the chance of injury would be lessened, for one thing, if the boys had three weeks of drill before bumping into tough opposition bent on mayhem. It certainly would aid the coaches materially, for trying to turn out a team in one week is somehow beyond the bounds of possibility. Erie Academy was a good example. Coach Drake had many experienced men, but the Lions were far from a smooth-working machine here on Labor Day.

The committee offers no explanation of any of the suggested rulings as far as we could learn, and we are particularly interested in whatever is back of the recommendation to limit the schedule to ten games. Ten games carried the schedule of most schools only into the second week of November, which is plenty far enough in this particular locality, but down east the temperature seldom gets uncomfortable until considerably later in the month. Of course, you can't figure on the Saturday afternoon conditions anymore—it's the weather on Friday nights that counts, and that may be what the P. I. A. A. had in mind.

You said it. Well, sir, Ray Peebles called yesterday to say he and Joe Martin were still "scared," although claiming that the public safety director's official duties would hold him in Erie this afternoon, and preventing him from crossing sand wedges with Parshall and your agent. . . . We pinned them down to next Thursday when it will probably rain. . . . Did we mention that Tony Gorfida, who learned no part of his game from totting our bag, knocked off the caddy championship at the local club? . . . Roland was the runner-up. . . . The bad weather held up the tennis tourney last week. . . . To date the results are: Dr. Crevello over Willey, 6-0, 6-3; Irvin over Mervine, 6-0, 6-4; Conroy over Brown, 6-2, 6-1. . . . "Fritz" Kennett, the greatest punter in Warren High School history, is visiting in his old home town.

RED SOX PURCHASE SKEETER NEWSOME

Boston, Sept. 5.—(P)—The acquisition of Lamar (Skeeter) Newsome, former Philadelphia Athletics' shortstop, from Baltimore in exchange for two players was announced today by the Red Sox management.

Newsome will report next spring after the Red Sox turn over Hal Selig, an infielder now with their Little Rock farm, and one other player. Newsome, released outright by the Athletics last winter, batted .269 in 126 games for the Orioles this season.

Last Night's Bouts

Washington—Iszy Janeczko, 145½, New York, outpointed Holman Williams, 146½, Detroit (10). Uniontown, Pa.—Tommy Spiegall, 133, Uniontown, outpointed Johnny Rucker, 134, Pittsburgh (12).

San Francisco—Ray Lunny, 133, San Francisco, outpointed Lew Feldman, 134, Brooklyn (10).

SPORTS ROUNDUP

BY EDDIE BRIEZE

New York, Sept. 5.—Latest pennant race prices: Cleveland, even money; Yankees 2-1; Detroit 4-1. . . . One of the most important boxing states in the republic is all set to leap aboard the N.B.A. bandwagon next week. . . . Dick Chapman, the socialite golfer-crooner, is our pick to win the national amateur golf meet. . . . Jack Kearns will have to net $55,000 to stay out of the red on Bay vs. Comiskey and lots of folks think he won't do it. . . . Don Budge, who detects a sort of counterfeiting ring to the national singles championships, is stringing along with Bobby Riggs and La Marbie. . . . Doc Sutherland is very, very high on Banks M'Fadden.

Today's Guest Star

Jack Singer, N. Y., Journal-American: "The greatest job of wrecking since Mayor La Guardia tore down the Sixth Avenue 'L' is confronted by Willie Terry this winter. He must break up the Giants before they break him. . . . There is nothing wrong with the Giants that a new ball club wouldn't cure."

That's Hank Prusoff, the tenniser, with the red pan. . . . While entering a movie, a light-fingered dip lifted Hank's wallet containing 110 yams. . . . He removed the dough, then, to rub it in, put the empty purse back in Prusoff's pocket.

Short Shorts

Henry Armstrong lays his title on the line against Phil Fure at Washington, Sept. 23. . . . Johnny Murphy, Yankee relief pitcher, has a hairy, ditto Herb Nash of the Red Sox. . . . Mike Jacobs has promised Billy Conn that if he licks Bob Pastor, he can have a shot at Joe Louis in the Garden, Oct. 3. . . . The Washington Senators are reported negotiating for the Springfield franchise in the Eastern League. . . . First man to check in for the national amateur golf meet at Mamaroneck was Maurice McCarthy of Cincinnati. Bing Crosby had been talking with a 73 on his second time out. . . . Jim Mallory, who chucked a football career at North Carolina U., to sign with Washington, was the standout of the recent semi-pro tournament.

Oh, Elmer.

Pete Layden, Texas U's classy junior tailback, is a cousin of the Notre Dame coach and how Elmer ever let Pete get away is a mystery to us, as the late Ring Lardner's "Jack Keefe" used to say.

Names Is Names.

There is a chap named Beltzer on the Michigan grid squad who is probably resigned to being known as Bromo from now on.

OLEAN AND LONDON WIN PLAYOFF TILTS

Olean defeated Hamilton 6 to 1 and London turned back Batavia 8 to 3 in the first games of the Pony League playoffs last night.

The teams will meet in Olean and Batavia again tonight and then transfer hostilities to the Canadian cities.

PARSHALL TRIMS MICHELL TO GET BERTH IN FINALS

Marshall C. Parshall, for many seasons one of the ranking golfers at Conewango Valley Country Club, this year will make another bid for the club championship.

Parshall disposed of Al Michell 5 up and 4 to play to enter the finals after first defeating Neal MacDonald and Dick Lott. A quarter-final match remains in the top bracket, H. D. Hubbs being scheduled to play Ray Elliott for the right to meet Defending Champion Alec Brown in the semi-finals.

In the second sixteen Bill Rice advanced to the finals by turning back W. H. Locke and will meet the winner of the H. L. Banghart-John Blair, Jr., semi-final. Banghart eliminated Ed Borden, 4 and 3, while Blair defeated Bill Moore.

Roy Kidder is in the finals of the third flight by virtue of a 5-3 decision over Karl Nichols. The other finalist in the last flight will be either Ralph Ruggaber or Harry "Bud" Kopf, Jr., who eliminated Bill Howat and Dave Beaty, Jr., respectively.

Carnegie Tech Back Sparks All-Stars to Victory Over Giants

New York, Sept. 5.—(P)—From the surprise package the Eastern All-Stars unloaded on the New York professional Giants' proud, unbeaten exhibition record, the chief "hangover" left today was that press clippings mean as much in football performance as the style of a player's haircut.

For the Eastern All-Stars presented a "star-less" squad of grid-men before a crowd of 39,405 at the Polo Grounds last night and they wound up with an impressive, 16 to 7 victory over the Giants.

Champions of the eastern division of the National League, the Giants were 1 to 3 favorites to take their fifth straight in this series with the Eastern All-Stars with the New York Herald Tribune's Fresh Air Fund.

Sparked by Merlyn Condit, a southpaw passer from Carnegie Tech who never came closer to an All-America team than seeing it in the movies, the Stars scored one touchdown in the second period, a field goal in the third and another six-pointer in the fourth to roll up their total, Condit produced nine points, six on a 92-yard run.

Tuss McLaughry, Brown coach and all-star pilot, had picked this

TROSKY INJURED—OUT INDEFINITELY

Detroit, Sept. 5.—(P)—Manager Oscar Vitt of the Cleveland Indians said tonight that Hal Trosky, the slugging first baseman whose home runs have been helping keep the tribe in front in the American League, was out of play indefinitely with an injured leg.

Trosky hurt his right leg in the fourth inning of today's game with Detroit when he tripped while rounding third base. He visited a physician tonight.

Vitt also said that Bob Feller, who has been working in both starting and relief roles in the Indians' stretch drive, would not pitch again until next Tuesday. Vitt said Feller was "working too much."

Tax Delinquents In Pleasant Township Urged to Pay Bills

Approximately 300 restraints or levies against personal goods have been served in Pleasant township by Deputy Tax Collector H. A. Look, it was announced today. All of these are for back taxes, it was stated.

Further proceedings against Act 277 of the state law, approved June 20, 1939, will be started within the next week, Mr. Look said. He said that it is advisable for anyone owing personal property or per capita taxes to make arrangements at once with John Yagie, Pleasant township tax collector, at once.

It was pointed out that publishing of sales would mean an additional cost of $2.80 for posting, plus advertising costs of $2.80.

Parliament Is Interrupted By Enemy Bombers

London area saw a large cross sky-written in white with smoke or exhaust condensation across the blue sky by a plane whose motor could be heard, but which was too high to be visible.

The government announced shortly after the clear signal was given 14 German planes had been shot down by British fighters. Three British planes were reported missing.

The announcement said that reports of yesterday's air battles over England showed that 54 enemy planes had been shot and 17 British planes lost. Only five British pilots died, however.

It had been known for three days that Churchill would give his report at this time. Commons adjourned for two weeks Aug. 19, after hearing Churchill's first war report.

(A surprise speech was delivered in Berlin yesterday by Adolf Hitler. Precautions were taken, however, and only two hours notice was given foreign newspapermen of the assemblage of 25,000 persons at which Hitler spoke for the winter relief fund.)

Waves of enemy aircraft had crossed the southeast coast at a great height and some of them were approaching London when the alarms were sounded.

Anti-aircraft batteries and British fighters went into action immediately.

The raid was one of a series over England at widely-spaced objectives, some planes of one group penetrating the outskirts of London and dropping bombs, and others doing considerable damage in the northwest.

mania is fading, ought to be restored to Bulgaria, and he had never been happy about the way Hungary was treated after the last war.

"No one must suppose that the danger of invasion is past," he further warned, and the "greatest vigilance is necessary to save our lives and our cause." But he said Britain was "very much better off than a few months ago" and if the problem of invading Britain was difficult in June it "has become far more difficult in September."

He said Britain had sent "a continuous stream of convoys with reinforcements" to the middle east and "we have every intention of maintaining our position there at the utmost strength."

Churchill announced that Britain's civilian casualties during August air raids totaled 1,075 killed and slightly more than that number wounded.

Authorized sources declared only two British planes penetrated the Berlin defenses, and one of these was shot down outside the city.

Most of the British raiders which entered Germany were turned back for the second successive night by anti-aircraft fire and Nazi chaser planes, they said.

Dictator Rule For Rumania

The Vienna award restored to Hungary nearly half of all the territory she lost to Rumania by the World War treaty of the Tripartite.

Today's schedule provided for occupation of Nagyvarad, Szatmar, and Maramarossiget, three cities near the border.

The Hungarian government ordered all church bells along the routes of march to ring continuously during the occupation.

Bucharest, Sept. 5.—(P.)—King Carol was reported on high authority today to have bowed to a demand by his new premier, Gen. Ion Antonescu, for the banishment from Rumania of Madame Magda Lupescu, the monarch's red-headed friend.

This demand of the iron-willed, army-supported Gen. Antonescu was understood to have been the basic condition on which he accepted the premiership after an all-night session with Carol.

The king, for ten years a strong ruler of his kingdom, yielded supreme power to Gen. Antonescu, a nationalist supported both by the army and the Fascist Iron Guard, which was charged with plotting to overthrow Carol earlier this week.

Mme. Lupescu, with whom Carol went to live in exile upon abandoning his rights to the throne in the late 1920's, was reported in court circles to be aboard the royal yacht anchored now at Istanbul, having left the capital four days ago.

(Mme. Lupescu long has been known as a leader of a court clique allegedly wielding great power behind Carol's throne. Jewish, Mme. Lupescu has been opposed bitterly by the anti-Semitic Iron Guard and by army leaders. Gen. Antonescu's dismissal as chief of the Rumanian general staff in 1935 long has been laid to Mme. Lupescu's influence.)

In the long night session during which Carol and the new strong iron man were closeted behind locked doors, the king told his premier-designate he would abdicate.

Mme. Lupescu had to be banished from Rumania, Rumanians said.

Whether he had dropped this attitude was not immediately clear.

Mme. Lupescu is bitterly opposed by both the Iron Guard and the army, organizations which have jumped to new power in the wake of popular opposition to Rumania'scession under direction of the Rome-Berlin axis of northern Transylvania to Hungary.

These events occurred swiftly today even as Hungarian troops were moving into their newly-won territory.

Vote Near In House On Draft

their senses five months later when he put us into war."

Sweeney returned to a seat besides Vincent, five years his junior, and abruptly the flare-up occurred. Each representative landed hard blows to the face and kept slugging until colleagues intervened. One grappled with the stocky Sweeney and rolled over a seat with him before he pinned him down.

Sweeney subsequently apologized to the House. Vincent at first repeated his charge of "traitor" but later withdrew it at the persuasion of friends. Each gave the House his version of the altercation.

Sweeney's account: "As I resumed my seat, the gentleman with whom I had difficulties called me a traitor. He repeated it again and you know what happened."

Vincent's account: "I served in the World War. x x x To say that my president of that time brought on that war to me was an untruth. The whole statement that the gentleman made here I resented very much."

"When he came down to sit with me I got up and moved, and I shall continue to move as long as I am a member of the congress of the United States and he is a member of congress. x x x"

"I said I did not want to sit by a traitor to my country. Then he attacked me and you know what happened."

When Vincent concluded there were some cheers, but more boos and hisses and loud shots of "throw him out." Vincent retracted the "traitor" charge a few minutes later and it was stricken from the record, despite objections.

The House debate last night lasted almost until midnight, with description alternately praised and denounced.

Explosives Are Dropped By RAF On Berlin Area

(From Page One)

The 18 German civilians were killed when a bomb dropped on workers' quarters while the victims were outside a shelter, the High Command reported.

In the Berlin raid, bombs damaged an electrical plant and warehouse where army equipment was stored.

Authorized sources declared only two British planes penetrated the Berlin defenses, and one of these was shot down outside the city.

Most of the British raiders which entered Germany were turned back for the second successive night by anti-aircraft fire and Nazi chaser planes, they said.

Tax Delinquents In Pleasant Township Urged to Pay Bills

Approximately 300 restraints or levies against personal goods have been served in Pleasant township by Deputy Tax Collector H. A. Look, it was announced today. All of these are for back taxes, it was stated.

Further proceedings against Act 277 of the state law, approved June 20, 1939, will be started within the next week, Mr. Look said. He said that it is advisable for anyone owing personal property or per capita taxes to make arrangements at once with John Yeagle, Pleasant township tax collector, at once.

It was pointed out that publishing of sales would mean an additional cost of $2.50 for posting, plus advertising costs of $2.80.

The government announced shortly after the clear signal was given 14 German planes had been shot down by British fighters. Three British planes were reported missing.

The announcement said that reports of yesterday's air battles over England showed that 54 enemy planes had been shot and 17 British planes lost. Only five British pilots died, however.

It had been known for three days that Churchill would give his report at this time. Commons adjourned for two weeks Aug. 19, after hearing Churchill's first war report.

(A surprise speech was delivered in Berlin yesterday by Adolf Hitler. Precautions were taken, however, and only two hours notice was given for foreign newspapermen of the assemblage of 25,000 persons at which Hitler spoke for the winter relief fund.)

Waves of enemy aircraft had crossed the southeast coast at a great height and some of them were approaching London when the alarms were sounded.

Antiaircraft batteries and British fighters went into action immediately.

The raid was one of a series over England at widely-spaced objectives, some planes of one group penetrating the outskirts of London and dropping bombs, and others doing considerable damage in the northwest.

mania is ceding, ought to be restored to Bulgaria, and he had never been happy about the way Hungary was treated after the last war.

"No one must suppose that the danger of invasion is past," he further warned, and the "greatest vigilance is necessary to save our Britain was 'very much better off than a few months ago' and if the problem of invading Britain was difficult in June it 'has become far more difficult in September.'"

He said Britain had sent "a continuous stream of convoys with reinforcements" to the middle east and "we have every intention of maintaining our position there at the utmost strength."

Churchill announced that Britain's civilian casualties during August air raids totalled 1,075 killed and slightly more than that number wounded.

Authorized sources declared only two British planes penetrated the Berlin defenses, and one of these was shot down outside the city.

Most of the British raiders which entered Germany were turned back for the second successive night by anti-aircraft fire and Nazi chaser planes, they said.

Dictator Rule For Rumania

The Vienna award restored to Hungary nearly half of all the territory she lost to Rumania by the World War treaty of the Trianon.

Today's schedule provided for occupation of Nagyvarad, Szatmar and Maramarossziget, three cities near the border.

The Hungarian government ordered all church bells along the routes of march to ring continuously during the occupation.

Bucharest, Sept. 5.—(P)—King Carol was reported on high authority today to have bowed to a demand by his new premier, Gen. Ion Antonescu, for the banishment from Rumania of Madame Magda Lupescu, the monarch's red-headed friend.

This demand of the iron-willed, army-supported Gen. Antonescu was understood to have been the basic condition on which he accepted the premiership after an all-night session with Carol.

The king, for ten years a strong ruler of his kingdom, yielded supreme power to Gen. Antonescu, a nationalist supported both by the army and the Fascist Iron Guard, which was charged with plotting to overthrow Carol earlier this week.

Mme. Lupescu, with whom Carol went to live in exile upon abandoning his rights to the throne in the late 1920's, was reported in court circles to be aboard the royal yacht anchored now at Istanbul, having left the capital four days ago.

(Mme. Lupescu long has been known as leader of a court clique allegedly wielding great power behind Carol's throne. Jewish, Mme. Lupescu has been opposed bitterly by the anti-Semitic Iron Guard and by army leaders. Gen. Antonescu's dismissal as chief of the Rumanian general stay in 1935 long has been laid to Mme. Lupescu's influence.)

In the long night session during which Carol and the new strong iron man were closeted behind locked doors, the king told his premier designate he would abdicate if Mme. Lupescu had to be banished from Rumania, Rumanians said.

Whether he had dropped this attitude was not immediately clear.

Mme. Lupescu is bitterly opposed by both the Iron Guard and the army, organizations which have jumped to new power in the wake of popular opposition to Rumania'scession under direction of the Rome-Berlin axis of northern Transylvania to Hungary.

These events occurred swiftly today even as Hungarian troops were moving into their newly-won territory.

their senses five months later when he put us into war."

Sweeney returned to a seat besides Vincent, five years his junior, and abruptly the flare-up occurred. Each representative landed hard blows to the face and kept slugging until colleagues intervened.

One grappled with the stocky Sweeney and rolled over a seat with him before he pinned him down.

Sweeney subsequently apologized to the House. Vincent at first repeated his charge of "traitor" but later withdrew it at the persuasion of friends. Each gave the House his version of the altercation.

Sweeney's account: "As I resumed my seat, the gentleman with whom I had difficulties called me a traitor. He repeated it again and you know what happened."

Vincent's account: "I served in the World War. x x x To say that my president of that time brought on that war to me was an untruth. The whole statement that the gentleman made here I resented very much."

"When he came down to sit with me, I got up and moved, and I shall continue to move as long as I am a member of the congress of the United States and he is a member of congress. x x x"

VERY PLEASING PROGRAM GIVEN BY LOCAL BAND

One of the most enjoyable concerts of the summer series was presented last night by the Veterans of Foreign Wars band on the lawn of Beaty school, with what was nearly the largest audience of the summer present despite the cool evening.

The soloists of the evening were particularly well received. Harold Gustafson, of Jamestown, former national high school trumpet champion and now a rising band conductor, delighted the audience with a trumpet fantasia based on the Civil War song, "Tamm Tramp, Tramp". Mr. Gustafson officially represented the Warren Salvation Army band, of which he is now conductor.

Also well received were Arthur Lindell and Donald Braustrom, of the Russell High School band, who played a trumpet duet, "Twin Stars". Byron Swanson, in directing this number, made one of his last appearances with the Russell band, which he organized and developed. He has assumed a new position as musical director in the Youngsville High School.

The band program was also pleasing, although slightly abbreviated by the early darkness. It is possible that one more concert will be given in the series, the Watson Memorial Home, having been tentatively selected as a life-guard of the Wildwood Beach Patrol.

LEGION POST TO HOLD MEETING MONDAY EVENING

Members of Chief Cornplanter Post, American Legion, will hold their first meeting of the month at the Legion Home next Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

With the annual election of officers scheduled for September 23, Monday's meeting will be the last opportunity to place candidates in nomination for office for 1941. Some nominations already have been made.

Several other activities are scheduled for Legionnaires and Auxiliary members next week. Among those are installation of officers of the Auxiliary and a joint Legion-Auxiliary party and buffet lunch to be held at the Legion Home on Friday, September 13. This party will be held to commemorate the 80th birthday of General John J. Pershing, commander-in-chief of the A. E. F. during the World War of 1917-1918. All Legion posts throughout the country will hold some sort of celebration on this date in honor of their wartime commander as the result of action taken by the national executive committee of the organization.

As this will be the last party to be held under the administration of Commander C. D. Carson and his entertainment committee headed by Junior Vice Commander W. J. Walker, a large attendance is expected. Dancing will start at 9 o'clock and a buffet lunch will be served during the evening.

Final plans for the Pershing party and other items of business, including the preliminary plans for Armistice Day, will be discussed at Monday's meeting.

Well-Chosen Bargain Furniture Is a Good Buy

Late summer furniture sales attract our attention as we scan the announcements to see where we might find good buys.

The wary purchaser knows that a price reduction does not always mean a real value. Mrs. Thelma Prendergast, home economics extension representative, Warren County, reminds. We must not only consider price, style and upholstery of chairs and davenports, but we must look beneath the surface at the inner construction.

Since we cannot tear furniture apart to investigate, we must depend on the salesman's statement or on informative labels that some manufacturers are attaching to upholstered furniture. These labels usually tell something about the inner construction of the piece.

A well-built upholstered piece of furniture will have a hardwood frame with parts dovetailed together. Mrs. Prendergast points out. Soft woods do not hold tacks well. Pieces only glued together have a habit of loosening and falling apart.

Springs of tempered steel will be well-sewed into strong webbing. The springs used in that seat will be tied diagonally as well as crosswise.

Padding may be down, feathers, hair, cotton, moss, sisal, toy, and excelsior, listed in order of their quality. There are varying grades of each of these materials. A new padding, sometimes called ribbon foam, seemingly quite satisfactory but probably too new for us to judge its real durability, is also being used.

Announces winners at 1940 4-H Club Week

In the third annual 4-H party table, held during the twentieth annual 4-H club week at the Pennsylvania State College, seven of the 19 counties entering an exhibit were given first merit awards, reports Mrs. Thelma Prendergast, home economics extension representative, Warren County. These awards went to Juniata, Montgomery, Chester, Butler, Luzerne, Dauphin, and Delaware counties.

Second merit awards went to Bradford, Centre, Berks, Northampton, Cambria, and Northumberland counties. Third merit awards were given to Lancaster, Cameron, Clarion, Bucks, Somerset, and Schuylkill counties.

The Thoroughbred Stud Book of Horses first was published in England in 1793.

PACIFIC FLEET LEAVES

Honolulu, Sept. 4.—The United States fleet, including nine battleships, left Pearl Harbor yesterday for maneuvers at sea. They were expected back September 13, when the main body of the fleet is due to return for a normal two weeks period of upkeep.

Miss Mary Louise Ward of Kane is spending some time with her aunt Mrs. Fred Wilson.

Miss Theresa Nelson, a per house guest, Miss Eleanor Peterson of Portland, Oregon, spent the Toronto exhibition for a few days recently. They are joined by Mrs. Peter E. Nelson and Miss Emily Peterson of Warren.

Shirley Walters of Pittsburgh visited her grandmother, Mrs. Irene Walters this week.

Mrs. Patrick, Mrs. Pat, Mrs. John Dailly and Mrs. Joseph Tottis motored to Franklin Tuesday to visit Mrs. H. R. Popple for the day.

Frank Walters was a Pittsburgh visitor Thursday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Elbers of Oil City, arrived today for a visit with their daughter Mrs. Harry Johnson and family.

PLANS FOR BIG RALLY OF DEMS ARE COMPLETED

With the selection of various committees to head up activities at their big rally, and free ox roast to be held next Sunday at Wildcat Park, Ludlow, Democratic leaders of McKean and Warren counties, joint sponsors of the affair, announced today that plans are quite complete and that reports from the various cooperating counties indicate a large attendance.

Information from C. Henry Nicholson, Warren county Democratic chairman, and Henry A. Satterwhite, McKean county chairman, indicates complete cooperation for the affair. They jointly announced that the Russell High School band will add another brilliant attraction for the day. The Warren Veterans of Foreign Wars band also will be present.

Fortune telling, weight guessing, athletic contests, the usual park concessions, free ox roast, coffee and cream, in addition to the array of Democratic leaders and speakers, promise to make the day a big one for Democrats throughout the entire region.

Tickets can be secured from the various precinct chairmen throughout the several counties, it was stated today.

A cancellation from Henry A. Wallace, Democratic vice presidential candidate, leaves the committee without a national speaker's name, but they have been assured a well known national figure to deliver an address, it was reported today.

Local Man Returns From Month's Tour To Cities in East

Prof. I. J. Hoff, Fifth avenue, has returned within the past few days from a month's motor tour of the east which included Philadelphia, New Jersey, New York City and the New England states. His trip was in the nature of a pilgrimage to the shrines of American history and of his own early American ancestors.

After spending some ten days on Cape Cod, he toured Massachusetts, Connecticut and New Hampshire, following the Merimac river almost to its source, including a visit in the White Mountains to the Great Stone Face or the Old Man of the Mountain famous in story and legend. He returned through Vermont and around Lake Champlain, across the Adirondacks, and home via the Finger Lakes region.

Prof. Hoff was unaccompanied on the entire journey, camping out of doors the greater part of the time. Quite some time was spent in Concord, where many literary shrines include the homes of the Alcotts, Thoreau, Ralph Waldo Emerson and others of those who established the new world in the literary and philosophical firmament. This is Mr. Hoff's third such journey, having made a circuit of the United States the summer of 1938, and in 1939 extensively toured the Pacific coast and the northwest.
